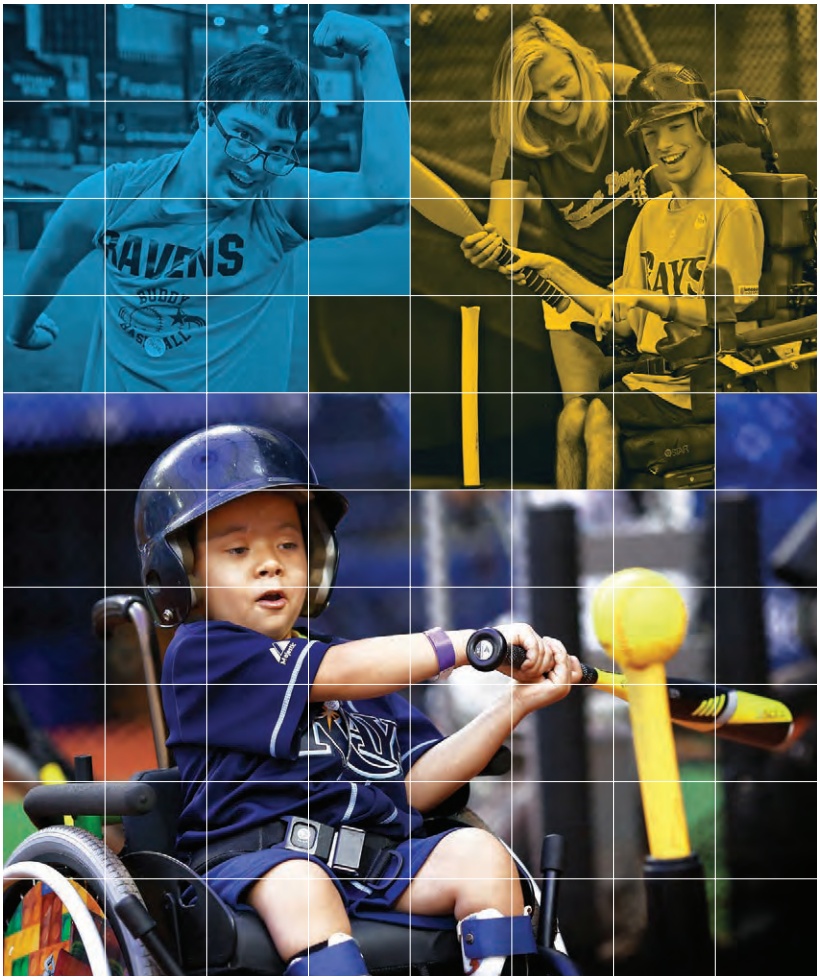
WILL VRAGOVIC / TAMPA BAY RAYS



RAYS ORGANIZATION

On July 27, 2019, the Rays hosted the first-ever Baseball Magic Clinic. Almost 100 children from Buddy Baseball and the Miracle League of Pinellas County attended alongside their buddies, parents, coaches and chaperones. The success of this event inspired a new initiative for the 2020 season: Baseball Magic Mondays. Once per month, the Rays will host a child from Buddy Baseball, the Miracle League or local Challenger Leagues for a special day with the Rays.

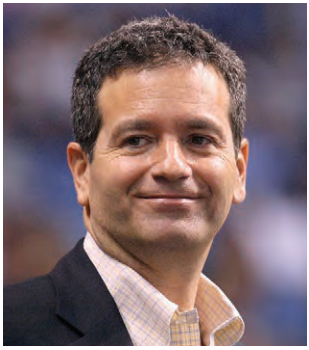
BUSINESS OPERATIONS



STUART STERNBERG / PRINCIPAL OWNER

The 2020 season is the Rays 15th under the leadership of Principal Owner Stuart Sternberg, who assumed control of the franchise in October 2005. His arrival marked the beginning of one of baseball's best turnaround stories.

Today, the massive rebranding of the club entering the 2008 season marks a watershed for two distinct eras of Rays baseball. In the club's first decade of existence, the Devil Rays amassed the majors' worst record at 645-972 (.399) and finished in last place in nine of those 10 seasons. In the 12 years since, the Rays own the 5th-best record in baseball at 1,041-904 (.535), and have made five trips to the postseason. In nine of those 12 seasons, the Rays were in postseason contention until at least the final week of the season.

The Rays went 96-66 in 2019, and their seven 90-win seasons since 2008 are matched by only three other clubs: the Dodgers (eight), Red Sox (seven) and Yankees (seven). The 2019 campaign also marked the second time in his tenure that Baseball America named the Rays its MLB Organization of the Year (also 2008).

"What the Rays have done—build up a 96-win major league team in the AL East and develop a farm system deep with future major leaguers—is awfully enviable," ESPN's Jeff Passan wrote. "And what's scary is that this is only the beginning."

While the on-field successes have been the envy of small- and large-market teams alike, there is even more to the Rays progress. Sternberg takes great pride in the organization's community service and commitment to its employees.

Under Sternberg's leadership, an employee-first culture defines the organization. It is fostered through myriad initiatives, including a wellness program; a staff-led service group, the Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT); and generous leave policies. As part of this commitment to community, all employees are urged to spend one paid day each month volunteering. To date, total volunteer hours for the organization exceed 38,500.

Over the past three years, Sternberg and his partners have invested more than $20 million of capital improvements to Tropicana Field—including new LED lights throughout the stadium; an overhauled food, beverage and retail space; the Left Field Ledge; and a reconfigured seating capacity with the closure of the upper deck. Fans can now enjoy a more intimate, entertaining and social ballpark experience that represents the very best of Tampa Bay. Since 2005, the Rays total investment in upgrading Tropicana Field is more than $50 million.

Under his direction, the Rays have implemented a wide variety of fan-friendly policies. The organization was the first major league team to convert its ballpark to a cash-free facility, reducing wait times by up to 50 percent at concession and retail locations. The Rays also became the first major league club to offer free parking (still in place today for fans who carpool on Sundays), were consistently rated by ESPN as one of the most affordable experiences in all of sports and remain the only major professional sports team in Florida to allow fans to bring food into the ballpark.

In June 2019, Sternberg and the Rays introduced an innovative plan for the team to build new home ballparks in both Tampa Bay and Montreal and divide its home games across both geographies.

Sternberg also serves as chairman of MLB's Diversity Oversight Committee, serves on the board of directors of the MLB Business and Media Board and on the board of advisors of Moffitt Cancer Center.

Prior to his ownership of the Rays, Sternberg spent 25 years in the financial securities industry, serving as a partner in Spear, Leeds & Kellogg and then as a partner and managing director at Goldman Sachs, from which he retired in 2003. Sternberg and his wife, Lisa, have four children. He resides in St. Petersburg.

BRIAN AULD / PRESIDENT

Brian Auld begins his 15th season with the Rays and his sixth in his current position as team president. Together, he and Matt Silverman lead the club's operations both internally and externally, including an innovative plan for the team to build new home ballparks in both Tampa Bay and Montreal and divide its home games across both geographies.

In his tenure as team president, Auld has brought a renewed focus to the Rays mission—to energize the community through the magic of Rays baseball—by redoubling the Rays commitment to its community and to its employees.

Under Auld's leadership, the Rays have developed a thriving workplace culture. In addition to paid parental leave, adoption benefits, paid volunteer time and a wellness initiative, the Rays created a $10 minimum wage for all part-time employees.

In 2018, Auld and Silverman oversaw the Rays purchase of the Tampa Bay Rowdies USL soccer team, based in St. Petersburg. They now also serve as vice chairmen of the Rowdies, overseeing all franchise operations.

Prior to Auld's promotion to team president, he oversaw a wide spectrum of the team's business operations, including the human resources, information technology, marketing, ticket sales, fan experience and stadium operations departments. Auld joined the Rays in June 2005 as director of planning and development, where he worked closely with Silverman to define organizational priorities and assist with the transition in ownership. Soon after, he played a key role in establishing the Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT). All Rays staff may spend up to one paid workday each month volunteering in the community and ECOT assists by finding opportunities.

Before joining the Rays, Auld attended Harvard Business School, where he earned his MBA focusing on managing human capital, marketing and finance. Auld's previous work experience includes serving as lead teacher and director of development for the East Palo Alto Charter School in California.

Born in Berkeley, Calif., Auld received a bachelor's degree in economics and master's degree in education from Stanford University, where he also captained the lacrosse team. He and Silverman met in high school in Dallas, and graduated one year apart. Brian is proud to claim that he once trekked to the bottom of Mount Everest.

He currently serves on the board of directors of the Rays Baseball Foundation, Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay, CEOs Against Cancer, St. Petersburg Economic Development Corporation and Tampa Bay Partnership. He also serves on the Heart Ball Cabinet for the American Heart Association and the Sports Advisory Council for Special Olympics Florida.

He and his wife, Molly, reside in St. Petersburg and are proud parents of two daughters, Lucy and Mia, and a son, Jack.

DID YOU KNOW?

ECOT / RAYS EMPLOYEE COMMUNITY OUTREACH TEAM

Established in April 2008, the Rays Employee Community Outreach Team provides invaluable, voluntary man hours to community service agencies that enhance or improve the quality of life in the communities it serves. ECOT's philanthropic efforts give the Rays a year-round, goodwill presence in the community. Service projects are chosen from ideas suggested by employees.

"As part of our Employee Community Outreach Team program, we encourage all employees to take one paid day each month to volunteer in the community," said Rays President Brian Auld.

In total, Rays employees have logged more than 38,500 volunteer hours split between monthly ECOT events and other ongoing projects, including Meals On Wheels, Big Brothers Big Sisters mentoring program and time spent at the Ronald McDonald House.

MATT SILVERMAN / PRESIDENT

Matt Silverman enters his 17th season with the Rays and 12th as team president. Together, he and Brian Auld lead the club's operations both internally and externally, including an innovative plan for the team to build new home ballparks in both Tampa Bay and Montreal and divide its home games across both geographies.

Silverman returned to the team president role in the fall of 2017 after serving three seasons (2015-17) as president of baseball operations. He was first promoted to team president in October 2005 at the age of 29, and over the next nine years guided the franchise through the most progressive growth stage in its history. At the top of the list is the revitalization of the Rays. In the fall of 2007, Silverman directed a complete organizational rebranding including a new name, colors, uniforms and logo, a bright yellow sunburst.

While steering the baseball operations department, Silverman oversaw significant leadership changes, both on the field and in the front office. During this time, he and his staff engineered 36 trades involving nearly 100 players, helping to fortify the minor league system. In December 2014, he hired Kevin Cash to become the fifth manager in Rays history. In November 2016, he elevated Erik Neander and others within the baseball operations department. One year later, his move back to team president completed the transition of baseball leadership, passing the baton to Neander as the team's top-ranking baseball official.

Silverman is board chairman of Starting Right, Now, which helps homeless high school students reach their potential. He is in his seventh year as the first chairman of the board of the Positive Coaching Alliance-Tampa Bay, a national nonprofit providing youth and high school athletes a positive, character-building youth sports experience. He also serves on the board of the Rays Baseball Foundation.

Prior to joining the Rays, Silverman worked closely with Stuart Sternberg at Goldman Sachs and orchestrated Sternberg's purchase of controlling interest in the franchise. In 2018, Silverman and Auld oversaw the Rays purchase of the Tampa Bay Rowdies USL soccer team, based in St. Petersburg. They now also serve as vice chairmen of the Rowdies, overseeing all franchise operations.

The Dallas native first met Auld in high school, and they graduated one year apart. He holds a bachelor of economics degree from Harvard University. Matt and his wife, Andrea, reside in St. Petersburg with their three daughters: Alexa, Samantha and Casey.

162 LANDING

MELANIE LENZ / CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Melanie Lenz was named chief development officer in January 2018. Lenz joined the Rays in November 2006 and was responsible for managing the design and construction of the Rays spring training facility in Charlotte County. In addition to the management of capital projects for the Rays, she oversees the organization's key strategic initiatives including the Rays brand extension within the television market, management of key business relationships, business analytics activities and long-term facilities planning. Lenz attended the University of Pittsburgh's Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, and received her master's degree in urban and regional planning in 1999. She earned her bachelor's degree from Duquesne University in 1995. She serves on the board of directors for the Downtown Tampa Partnership, St. Petersburg Downtown Partnership and Zoo Tampa. Melanie and her husband, Kurt, reside in St. Petersburg with their two sons.

JOHN P. HIGGINS
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATION/GENERAL COUNSEL

John P. Higgins joined the Rays organization as its first employee on April 1, 1995, when he was named the team's senior vice president and general counsel. From 1999 through 2007, he also served as the organization's chief financial officer and in January 2016 he recommenced oversight of the team's accounting and finance department. Higgins has practiced law in the Tampa Bay area since 1979, specializing in corporate, commercial and real estate law. He is also a certified public accountant. For three years, he represented Vince Naimoli and the rest of the Tampa Bay ownership group in its efforts to acquire a Major League Baseball franchise. RAYS BALLPARK EFFORTS

WITH MLB'S PRELIMINARY APPROVAL, IN JUNE 2019 THE RAYS ANNOUNCED AN INNOVATIVE PLAN TO BUILD NEW HOME BALLPARKS IN BOTH TAMPA BAY AND MONTREAL AND DIVIDE ITS HOME GAMES ACROSS BOTH GEOGRAPHIES.

Since assuming ownership of the team in 2005, it has been Stuart Sternberg's priority to build a new ballpark and secure the team's future in Tampa Bay. In 2007, the team proposed a 35,000-seat ballpark at historic Al Lang Field in St. Petersburg; however, there was an absence of political and corporate support for the plan. Most recently, the organization attempted to build a 31,000-seat fixed-roof ballpark in Tampa's Ybor City neighborhood. That pursuit ended in December 2018 after again failing to secure the necessary public and corporate support for the ballpark.

The "Sister City" or "Shared Season" plan proposed by the Rays in June 2019 would divide its home games across Tampa Bay and Montreal. It would have the team spend spring training and the first portion of its home season in Tampa Bay, then play its remaining home games in Montreal (although no official scheduling parameters have been set). The Rays would play home games in each city during its best weather months, and it would allow for both new venues to be intimate, open air ballparks.

Both Tampa Bay and Montreal have deep histories with Major League Baseball, and this concept offers each the opportunity to secure it permanently. Both would enjoy the best of what baseball can provide a hometown, and together they would fuel the team and improve its competitive prospects. Both markets would also benefit from the tourism, business and cultural connections that would develop between Tampa Bay and Montreal.

Many of the finer points of the concept still need to be worked out, including the future name of the team and how postseason games would be shared among the two markets. The Rays are currently exploring the feasibility of this Sister City concept. Its Tropicana Field lease with the City of St. Petersburg expires after the 2027 season.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

ERIK NEANDER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Erik Neander (nee-ANN-der) enters his fourth season as senior vice president of baseball operations and general manager, and his third season as the club's top-ranking baseball official. He was named to his current post on Nov 4, 2016, and one year later Matt Silverman shifted to team president after a three-year stretch as president of baseball operations.

As the leader of the baseball operations department, Erik directly oversees all of its functions, including player evaluation and procurement, player development, medical training and research and development. While facing low-revenue challenges in the powerhouse AL East, Erik and his staff have constructed teams that improved their win totals from 68 to 80 to 90 to 96 victories over the past three seasons. In 2019, the Rays made their first postseason appearance since 2013 while their win total fell one shy of the club record set in 2008.

As a result of the club's accomplishments in 2019, Neander was selected by his peers as baseball's top executive. He became the second recipient of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year Award, following Oakland's Billy Beane (2018), and earned a similar honor as Sporting News Executive of the Year. In December, the Rays were honored as Baseball America's 2019 Organization of the Year.

"Rays execs … [know] they operate on the thinnest of margins," wrote The Athletic's Ken Rosenthal in April 2019. "Others in the industry can't help but notice, however. Baseball's little engine that could is turning into a runaway train."

Much of that optimism is rooted in the Rays player development system. The Rays enter 2020 ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 farm system in the game—the fifth straight season they have improved their standing, after a No. 2 ranking entering 2019. Entering both 2019 and 2020, they placed more prospects than any other team in the publication's Top 100 list—with nine in 2019, and eight in 2020. Six of those eight prospects were acquired by Erik's staff, including international signing Wander Franco (No. 1 overall), draft picks Brendan McKay (No. 14), Shane McClanahan (No. 83) and Joe Ryan (No. 98) and trade acquisitions Shane Baz (No. 71) and Xavier Edwards (No. 85).

In just over three years as general manager, he and his staff have engineered 51 major league trades involving a total of 132 players, including a club-record 20 trades in 2018. Of the 40-man roster, 25 players have been acquired since he was appointed GM (and 22 via trade). Among these players are trade acquisitions Randy Arozarena, Nick Anderson, Ji-Man Choi, Yandy Díaz, Tyler Glasnow, Manuel Margot, José Martínez, Austin Meadows, Hunter Renfroe and Ryan Yarbrough and free agents Charlie Morton and Yoshi Tsutsugo. Their 2019 ALDS roster included 18 players acquired on Erik's watch, 15 of them via trade.

Neander, who turns 37 in May, begins his 14th season in the Rays organization. Much of his past experience focused on player personnel, departmental administration, research and development, the amateur draft and major league operations. He joined the Rays in January 2007 as a baseball operations intern and was hired full-time in October 2007. He was later promoted to manager, baseball research and development in 2009, director of baseball operations prior to the 2012 season and vice president of baseball operations in October 2014.

Prior to joining the Rays, Erik worked for Baseball Info Solutions. The Oneonta, N.Y. native graduated from Virginia Tech with a bachelor's of science in food, nutrition and exercise. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa with their sons, Penn and Corbin; daughter, Eden; and their rescue animals.

He first joined the Rays as an intern in January 2009, and was later promoted to assistant of baseball operations and coordinator of baseball research and development. The Rays Baseball Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization and the official charity of the Rays, is dedicated to improving the lives of those in need within our community, focusing primarily on education, youth development, wellness and social responsibility. Key contributors to the foundation include Rays owners, players, corporate partners, fans and employees.

PROGRAMS

HOME RUN CLUB

In 2010, the Big Game James Club was started by James and Ryane Shields. The club, later to be named the Home Run Club in 2013, consists of a donated suite for foster children and their families. Even though founders James and Ryane Shields are no longer members of the Rays organization, their legacy of advocating for children in foster care lives on. The club continues to offer a sense of stability and belonging to hundreds of foster children. Each season, over 500 foster children have become club members. Two participating organizations have hosted events resulting in numerous adoptions for local foster children.

In 2020, the Rays will be celebrating the 10th "birthday" of the Home Run Club, with a number of exciting events planned over the summer.

RAYS JERSEY PROGRAM

Since 2014, the Rays Jersey Program, presented by Suncoast Credit Union and the Rays, has outfitted more than 70,000 Tampa Bay area tee-ball players and coaches with Fanatics jerseys and caps. The program covers more than 80 different leagues in nine area counties and has saved the leagues more than $1 million in equipment costs. As a result of these savings, officials from some of the participating leagues have noted that they now have the ability to pass these savings along to participant families. They have also been able to repair their scoreboards, provide upgrades to dugouts, add fencing for fields, purchase additional equipment and grounds crew supplies and repair concession stands and other areas of their facilities. As part of the overall program, the Rays host instructional clinics for their players and coaches in partnership with the Positive Coaching Alliance. PCA provides tips to coaches and parents on how to provide a positive, character-building youth sports experience to their teams.

READING WITH THE RAYS

Since 2006, the Rays Baseball Foundation has teamed up with Suncoast Credit Union for the summer reading program Reading with the Rays—Read Your Way to the Ballpark. Reading with the Rays encourages kids to avoid summer reading loss by participating in a fun and interactive reading program over the summer months. More than 300,000 Tampa Bay area students from nine surrounding counties have participated since its inception. Participating libraries track a child's progress and award prizes for reaching certain goals, including free tickets to a Rays game. The program is made possible through a partnership with Suncoast Credit Union, Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education, the Rays and public library systems in Charlotte, Citrus, Hernando, Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk and Sarasota counties.

SOUTH ST. PETERSBURG NEIGHBORHOOD INITIATIVE

The Rays launched the South St. Petersburg Neighborhood Initiative in response to the tragic 2009 shooting death of 8-year-old Paris Whitehead in South St. Petersburg, an underserved community that borders Tropicana Field.

This program benefits the following organizations and initiatives:

- Academy Prep Center of St. Petersburg
- Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast
- Burg Baseball
- Campbell Park Elementary
  - Field Days
  - Food Pantry
  - Great American Teach In
  - Mentoring
  - Rays Room
- Feeding Tampa Bay Mobile Pantry

TEAM SMILE

Since 2018, the Rays have partnered with Team Smile, an advocacy group that partners dental professionals with professional athletic organizations to provide life-changing dental care to underserved children in their communities. Over the past two years, the Rays have hosted more than 400 children from the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast and local foster care groups for a free dental day at Tropicana Field. The children received dental work completely free of charge, including X-rays, screening and educational material on how to protect their teeth. The value of care provided totaled almost $170,000. Additionally, Raymond and DJ Kitty were on hand to greet the kids, along with the Ray Team, face painters, balloon artists and Rays baseball camp coaches.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Since 2008, the Rays Baseball Foundation has teamed up with local partners to provide more than $1 million in college scholarships to students participating in the Take Stock in Children program in Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas and Sarasota counties. The foundation also funds the Academy Prep Centers for Education Scholarships in Tampa, St. Petersburg and Lakeland, the St. Petersburg College Foundation First Generation Scholars, Barry Jones Memorial Scholarship and the Don Zimmer Memorial Scholarship.

RAYS IN THE COMMUNITY

EMPLOYEE COMMUNITY OUTREACH TEAM (ECOT)

The Rays Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT) was established in 2008 to provide invaluable volunteer hours to community service agencies that enhance or improve the quality of life in the communities they serve. Service projects are chosen from ideas suggested by an employee-led committee. Volunteering not only benefits the community, but also Rays employees, by allowing them to give back in a meaningful way through the course of their normal work day. In total, Rays employees have logged more than 38,500 volunteer hours to support nonprofits in the Tampa Bay region.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC BACK-TO-SCHOOL EVENT

On Aug 19, 2019, the Rays delivered school supplies, backpacks, uniforms, hygiene products, sports equipment and Rays giveaway items to the students at Escuela Basica Patria Mirabal, a primary school adjacent to the Rays Academy in Guerra, Dominican Republic. On the first day of school, each student received their very own backpack full of the aforementioned items, a special lunch catered by the executive chef from the Rays Academy and finished the day with an ice cream party. The afternoon included a baseball game, dancing and a number of other games alongside the community engagement department and Rays Academy staff. The Rays provided teachers with a stock of supplies to use throughout the school year.

Additionally, the Rays hired a local contractor to make significant improvements to the school's infrastructure, including the addition of running water. The installation of a well and a functional sink made the school eligible for a government-funded hot lunch program. The improvements also included painting both the interior and exterior of the buildings, installing brand new restroom facilities, laying the foundation for a basketball court and providing the necessary playing equipment.

Over 200 locals attended the event, and more than 100 children were readied for the upcoming school year.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

Each year, the Rays donate thousands of tickets, suites, experiences and autographed memorabilia to assist organizations in our nine neighboring counties to raise funds for their respective causes.

PLAY BALL

The goal of Rays Play Ball is to celebrate youth baseball and softball while simultaneously encouraging participation in all forms of the game. The Rays do this through support of Rays RBI Tampa and Burg Baseball, the Rays Jersey Program, field renovations and many Play Ball events, like Play Ball Day and Play Ball Weekend.

On July 27, 2019, the Rays hosted the first-ever Baseball Magic Clinic. Almost 100 children from Buddy Baseball and the Miracle League of Pinellas County had the opportunity to experience the magic of Rays baseball at Tropicana Field, alongside their buddies, parents, coaches and chaperones. The Buddy Baseball and Miracle League players completed various stations, receiving instruction on hitting, pitching and fielding, in addition to playing a few innings on the infield and visiting the Ray Tank. Positive Coaching Alliance - Tampa Bay provided parents and players with guidance on life skills and character development, learned through sports. The 2020 Rays Baseball Magic Clinic is scheduled on June 6 for MLB's Play Ball Weekend.

The Baseball Magic Clinic has inspired a new initiative for 2020 called Baseball Magic Mondays. Every month, the Rays will host a child from Buddy Baseball, the Miracle League or local Challenger Leagues for a special day with the Rays.

PLAYER & RAYS WIVES PROGRAMS

TUESDAY'S CHAMPION

Wish Foundation or Children's Dream Fund at the ballpark as a part of a special program called "Tuesday's Champion." The kids, accompanied by their families, are invited to participate in a VIP experience which includes being on the field during batting practice, where they can meet and interact with Rays players and coaches. They are then treated to dinner in the Rays Club before taking the field and throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. Along with these experiences, they are also given a personalized jersey and a bat to commemorate the experience. The children selected for the program are battling life-threatening illnesses and occasionally come straight from the hospital for this special experience.

KIERMAIER'S KIDS

In 2019, with a $25,000 donation to the Children's Dream Fund, Kevin Kiermaier and his wife, Marisa, fulfilled the dreams of six children—"Kiermaier's Kids"—who are living with life-threatening illnesses. The Kiermaier's Kids' dreams included meeting Mickey Mouse, visiting Disney World to meet the princesses, setting sail on a Disney cruise, attending a Queen concert, a full car makeover and a new, fully equipped tool shed.

LOWE'S HOME RUNS FOR HOPE

For every home run Rays infielder Brandon Lowe hits, he and his wife, Madison, will donate $100 to the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay. The Rays Baseball Foundation will also contribute $100 per home run in support of Lowe's "Home Runs for Hope" campaign. The Crisis Center of Tampa Bay provides a range of services to ensure that no one in the community has to face a crisis alone. It is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year as the community gateway to help. People who are struggling with a variety of crisis situations including sexual assault or abuse, domestic violence, financial distress, substance abuse, medical emergency, suicidal thoughts and other emotional or situational problems can connect to hope and healing.

LOWE'S LEGENDS

As part of the Lowe's Legends program, Brandon and Madison Lowe host local youth baseball and softball teams for batting practice and provide them tickets to the games. During batting practice, the teams have the opportunity to meet Brandon and Madison and learn about their experiences through baseball and softball. In addition, the Lowes will host a baseball and softball clinic at Tropicana Field.

HOSPITAL VISITS

The Rays proudly partner with Moffitt Cancer Center and local hospitals to bring players, coaches and mascots several times throughout the season to raise the spirits of patients and their families.

MINOR LEAGUE ERIK WALKER AWARD

The Erik Walker Community Champion Award annually recognizes Rays minor league players who exemplify teamwork, sportsmanship and community involvement—attributes exhibited by Rays minor league pitcher Erik Walker, who died tragically in October 2006. Each player chooses a nonprofit organization to receive a donation from the Rays Baseball Foundation.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Each season, the Rays nominate a player for the Roberto Clemente Award. The Roberto Clemente Award is the annual recognition of a player from each major league club who best represents the game of baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field. In 2019, the Rays nominated Kevin Kiermaier for this prestigious award. Past nominees have included Mallex Smith, Evan Longoria, Chris Archer, David Price and James Shields.

RAYS WIVES

Throughout the baseball season, the Rays Wives plan and participate in various community events benefiting organizations of their choice. In 2019, the Rays Wives' events benefited the A21 Campaign, Children's Dream Fund, Community Cooperative, Feeding Tampa Bay, Home Run Club, Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital, Pet Pal Animal Shelter, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay and Starting Right, Now.

STORMY WEATHER

The Rays have had games affected by four hurricanes:

- Hurricane Dorian (Sep 2-4, 2019): MLB moved up the Rays-Orioles series finale to be part of a traditional doubleheader on Sep 3—just the third doubleheader in Tropicana Field history. The Rays split the twin bill, and won two of three games in the series.
- Hurricane Irma (Sep 11-13, 2017): MLB moved the three-game series against the Yankees from Tropicana Field to Citi Field in New York. The Rays lost two of three games. It was the fifth time in baseball history that weather concerns forced the relocation of games to a neutral site—but the second in a span of two weeks.
- Hurricane Frances (Sep 3-5, 2004): MLB postponed two games against the Tigers (Sep 4-5), and the Tigers left St. Pete after the Sep 3 series opener to avoid the storm. The Rays were scheduled to play a Labor Day doubleheader at Yankee Stadium on Sep 6, but were unable to leave Tampa International Airport until 3 p.m. that day. They arrived in New York at 5:25 p.m. and played a single game that night, a 7-4 loss which began at 7 p.m. The postponed game was eventually made up in New York on Sep 23. The Rays and Tigers played (and split) a doubleheader on Sep 30—the first of three ever played at Tropicana Field.
- Hurricane Gordon (Sep 17, 2000): The Rays and Athletics were postponed at Tropicana Field with the storm bearing down. Instead of playing that afternoon, the Athletics flew to Baltimore. The game was never made up, one of three such games in club history.

In addition, Tropicana Field served as a neutral host for a similar situation, as the Rangers-Astros series Aug 29-31, 2017 was moved from Houston due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey. The Astros won two of three games.

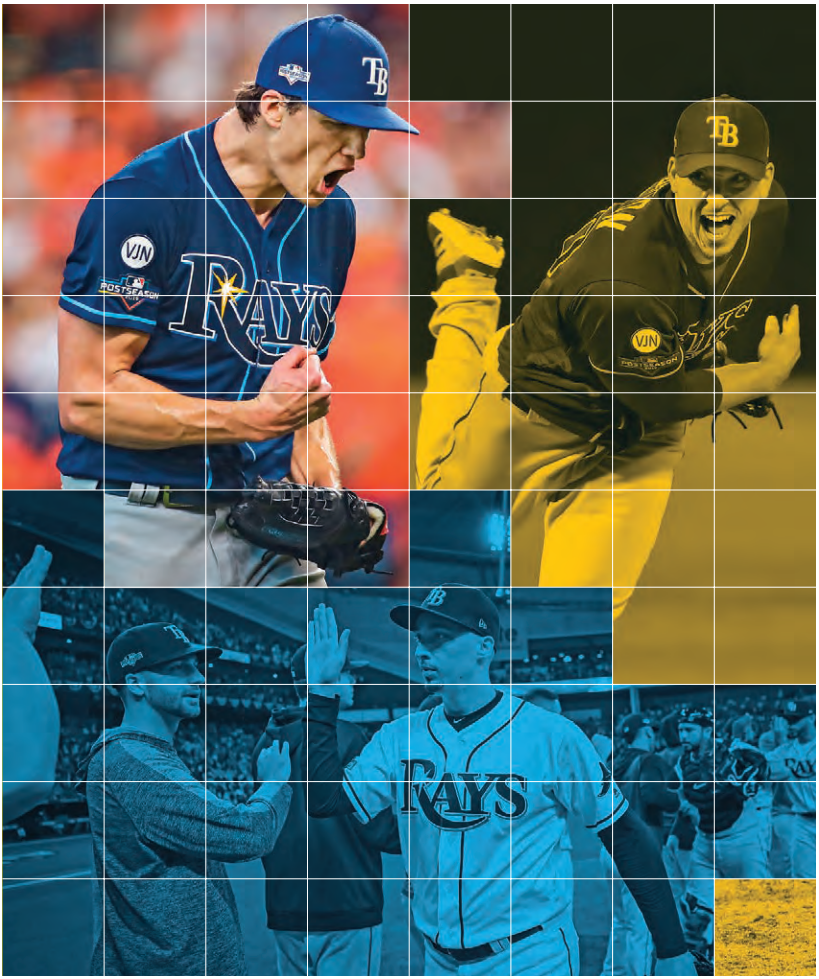
2020 JUNE DRAFT

The annual First-Year Player Draft is scheduled for June 10-12 in Omaha, Neb., the site of the NCAA's Men's College World Series. For the first time, the entire draft will be held without any overlap with NCAA games. The first day of the draft, which has been moved to a Wednesday this year, will again air exclusively on MLB Network.

The Rays hold the No. 24 overall selection. They also hold a Competitive Balance Round A selection (No. 37), acquired in a trade from the Cardinals. In 2019, the Rays selected SS Greg Jones out of the University of North Carolina Wilmington with the No. 22 overall selection.

This year is the 56th June Draft and the 25th draft in Rays history. It was on June 8, 1965 that the Oakland Athletics selected Arizona State outfielder Rick Monday with the first-ever pick. Since its inception, over 67,000 players have been selected in the June phase of the First-Year Player Draft. The Rays have made 1,225 of those. Among the major sports, baseball was the last to adopt a draft. The NFL was first in 1936, followed by the NBA in 1947 and NHL in 1962.

TB



40-MAN ROSTER

In 2019, Rays starting pitchers ranked 2nd in the AL with a 3.64 ERA. While this included 43 starts by an opener, the Rays used an opener only twice in 25 games in September. As a whole, the Rays staff led the AL with a 3.65 ERA, the first team in major league history to lead their league in ERA while using at least 33 pitchers. Entering 2020, the Rays will lean heavily on 2018 AL Cy Young Award winner Blake Snell, veteran Charlie Morton and righthander Tyler Glasnow.

X-RAY REPORT

- Willy trained with 12-time All-Star shortstop Barry Larkin in Orlando during each of the last two offseasons, as well as Dee Gordon, Carlos González and Edwin Ríos this past winter…Willy credits Larkin with helping him find consistency in his game, especially with his glove…he also attributes his defensive strides to his work with Rays third base coach Rodney Linares and a rigorous series of drills they do together.
- He visited Puerto Rico this offseason with former teammate Carlos Gómez to attend Yadier Molina's Home Run Derby and celebrity softball game…the event benefited the island's continuing recovery from Hurricane Maria.
- When Blake Snell entered in relief to close out the Rays Game 4 win during the 2019 Division Series at Tropicana Field, Willy put his arms around him on the mound and said, "I love you man, you got this. We have your back, so do your thing and make your pitches."
- Willy likes to spend time during the offseason in the Dominican Republic visiting the mountains and experiencing nature, especially its rivers and beaches.

X-RAY REPORT

- While on the mound against the Yankees on July 18 last season, Yonny's 1-2 pitch to ring up Brett Gardner in the 2nd inning sparked Yankees manager Aaron Boone's "savages" tirade with home plate umpire Brennan Miller… the exchange included Boone pointing towards Yonny, shouting, "That guy is a good pitcher."
- Yonny lost 15 pounds this winter by running more and improving his diet…he's eating more meat, less rice and smaller portions.
- Yonny threw his splitter 22.5 percent of the time last season, making it his primary out pitch and 2nd-most-used pitch behind his sinker…he learned the pitch in 2017 from pitching coach Kyle Snyder while with Triple-A Durham.
- He was never considered a highly-touted international prospect, instead signing with the Rays for $100,000 when he was 18 years old.
- As a child, Yonny and his friends would play a game similar to baseball that replaced the ball and bat with chapitas, or bottle caps, and a broomstick.

2019 SEASON

- On April 17 vs. BAL, became the third pitcher in franchise history to make a scoreless relief app of at least 5 IP and allow 1 hit (or fewer), joining Ryan Yarbrough on May 4, 2018 vs. TOR and Esteban Yan on April 13, 1998 vs. MIN…his only hit allowed was a 2-out double in the 2nd inning.
- On May 27 vs. TOR, his only baserunners allowed in 5 IP were a pair of 2nd-inning walks… was the fourth time in franchise history a pitcher did not allow a hit in a start of 5 IP (or more), joining Blake Snell (5 IP) on Aug 10, 2018, Nathan Eovaldi (6 IP) on May 30, 2018 at OAK and Matt Garza (9 IP) on July 26, 2010 vs. DET.
- Made seven consecutive quality starts from June 7–July 12, the longest such streak by a Ray since Jake Faria (7) from June 7–July 14, 2017… went 2-2 with a 2.93 ERA (46-IP, 15-ER) over that stretch, but the Rays went 2-5 in those games.

- On June 7 at BOS, retired his first 15 BF on 50 pitches, escaped a bases-loaded, 1-out jam in the 6th inning with back-to-back strikeouts and was replaced after eight scoreless and 101 pitches… it was the longest perfect game bid of his career and tied for the longest no-hit bid of his career.
- His start against the Red Sox was the seventh time in club history a Rays pitcher went eight scoreless at Fenway Park…was the third visiting pitcher since 2010 to allow 2 hits (or fewer) in a scoreless start of 8 IP (or more) at Fenway Park, joining two other Rays: Drew Smyly (8 IP) on April 19, 2016 and Matt Moore (9 IP) on July 22, 2013…was the first righty to do this since SEA Félix Hernández on April 11, 2007.

- Ji-Man is terrified of ghosts and believes to have had many encounters with them, including hugs and whispers…his first ghostly encounter in baseball came while recovering from back surgery in 2011, when he felt a "spirit" on his chest and awoke as he felt the bed slump…he had another encounter at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee, where a number of major leaguers have claimed to experience the paranormal.
- Over the winter, Ji-Man visited a youth baseball club in Chungju, South Korea…he worked with them on fundamentals, gave instruction and helped them with soft-toss and drills…Ji-Man is one of five active major leaguers born in South Korea…his 36 career home runs already rank 4th all-time among Korean-born players, behind Shin-Soo Choo (213), Jung Ho Kang (46) and Hee-Seop Choi (40).
- Rays fans' love for Ji-Man was on display in Game 4 of the 2019 ALDS at Tropicana Field… groups of fans were heard chanting his name in the parking lot and later the entire ballpark joined in the chant during his at-bats…the moment was later commemorated with an officially-licensed T-shirt.
- He originally signed with the Mariners as a catcher after growing up playing the position in South Korea…he moved out of the backstop role following a collision at home plate shortly after beginning his career in the U.S.

X-RAY REPORT

- Four days before homering twice in front of 54,005 fans at last year's AL Wild Card Game, Yandy was playing in his first action since fracturing his foot two months earlier…it was in front of an empty stadium at Charlotte Sports Park in an instructional league scrimmage… Rays senior advisor Mitch Lukevics was at both games and told the Tampa Bay Times, "Just amazing. You could not find two more opposite settings."
- He is a gym rat whose muscles have been featured in Men's Journal…he began weightlifting when he was 12 years old.
- Per the Tampa Bay Times, teammate Joey Wendle saw Yandy swing a bat in batting practice that had pennies taped around the barrel and "still crush balls as far as I could hit with a regular bat."
- Yandy was twice caught and arrested while attempting to defect from Cuba, each time jailed for 21 days…on the third attempt, he and friend Leandro Linares waited in tall grass until their motorized raft arrived…they set out at around 2 a.m. and arrived in the Dominican Republic at about 2 p.m. the next day…Yandy reports to have seen sharks swimming alongside the raft.
- Yandy hasn't seen his family in Cuba since he defected…he calls his mother, who still lives there, almost every day and says she influenced him to play baseball.
- His father, Jorge, played with inaugural Rays pitcher Rolando Arrojo for Villa Clara in the Cuban National Series and eventually defected to play a brief stint in the minor leagues…Yandy would later play for Villa Clara as well as he began his career.

- While at the ballpark, Oliver can usually be found working out with headphones on… instead of music, he prefers to listen to some of his favorite podcasts.
- He has been a hunter for around 10 years and spent time this offseason hunting deer.

X-RAY REPORT

- In visits to Atlanta's Turner Field growing up, Brent frequently "lounged" near the bullpen to talk to the pitchers, including Jonny Venters, Craig Kimbrel and Billy Wagner…he guaranteed to bullpen catcher Eddie Pérez that he'd play in the big leagues one day.
- Brent loved to play ding-dong-ditch as a kid until he and his best friend, Tyler, rang the doorbell of a house and the garage door opened to reveal a police cruiser with the lights on.
- While coaching him in eighth grade, Brent's dad threatened to pull him from a no-hit bid versus the varsity team in summer ball for laughing on the field…his dad visited the mound and said someone else would pitch if Brent didn't stop smiling…he struck the final batter out after that.
- Brent is an excellent yo-yoer, if not a little rusty.
- While Brent missed the 2018 season recovering from Tommy John surgery, former Rays and Tommy John veterans Nathan Eovaldi and Jonny Venters provided insight and encouragement during the recovery process.

- His father, Brent Sr., played for three seasons in the Pirates minor league system…Brent Sr. pitched for Saint Leo University under coach Mike Marshall, who won the NL Cy Young Award as a reliever with the Dodgers in 1974… his father learned how to throw a screwball from Marshall and passed it on to Brent.
- Growing up, Brent threw bullpen sessions to his father three times a week…on one Friday evening in 10th grade, Brent Sr. simply refused to catch him and said: "If you don't have it figured out by now, you're in trouble"…this was a turning point in his development as a pitcher and forced him to improve by stepping out of his comfort zone.

X-RAY REPORT

- Andrew and his wife, Tobey, welcomed their first child, Brooks, on June 13 last season… Andrew received the call that Brooks was coming while on his way to the airport to be recalled to the big leagues…from there he altered plans and traveled eight hours on two flights from Durham to Seattle to arrive in time for his birth.
- He became a hockey fan growing up attending junior league games…he enjoys watching the Tampa Bay Lightning and Minnesota Wild, but plans to become a fan of the NHL's new expansion franchise in Seattle when they begin operation in 2021.
- Andrew implemented a weighted-ball program with Driveline Baseball near Seattle ahead of the 2019 season in order to build arm muscle… he believes it led to increased velocity and arm strength…now living across the state, he maintains the program himself with his own garage wall he built to use for weighted ball drills.
- His family was unusual in being University of Washington fans living on the eastern side of the state—typically Washington State territory…he had offers from Gonzaga and Washington State but wanted to wait for Washington…a summer ball coach convinced former Washington coach Ken Knutson to fly out and watch him pitch, which resulted in receiving an offer.
- Andrew is the youngest of seven children…he has five sisters and one brother.
- While playing in the Australian Baseball League during the 2012-13 offseason, Andrew and a few teammates were leaving the stadium at night and discovered a huntsman spider on the trunk of his car…the species possesses an average leg span of five inches.

2019 SEASON

- Selected from Triple-A Durham on June 18 and remained in the Rays bullpen through the end of the season…made 30 apps out of the bullpen and was used seven times as an opener.

X-RAY REPORT

- Brandon maximizes the power potential in his body by implementing a regular routine of drills using bands and bungee cords to promote posture, balance and the transfer of energy…he uses these and other tools to create awareness and feel with his swing.
- He and his wife, Madison, are in the process of building a country home in Franklin, Tenn. …they live there in the offseason with their puppy, Collie, a miniature bernedoodle—a mix of a Bernese mountain dog and poodle.
- Brandon launched the "Home Runs for Hope" program in 2019…for each home run Brandon hits, he and Madison donate $100 to the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay, matched by the Rays Baseball Foundation…his 17 HR raised $3,400 last season…mental health has heavily impacted his family and he wants to ensure no one feels helpless when dealing with mental health issues.
- Brandon discovered his key to success while in the minor leagues, which he shared with the Tampa Bay Times…"A big thing has been eating applesauce. When I got to Triple-A Durham, I was struggling and they had those GoGo squeezes in the fridge and I was like, 'Ah, applesauce. I haven't had a lot of fruits lately.' Had one, ended up hitting a home run. Had three hits that day. And I was like, 'I've got to have applesauce tomorrow.' The next day, I hit two home runs, and I just absolutely took off."

- Min. 300 PA, his .514 SLG was the 2nd-highest in AL history by a rookie middle infielder, behind BOS Nomar Garciaparra (.534) in 1997.

- Since 2005, only three other AL rookie middle infielders have matched his home run total: NYY Gleyber Torres (24) in 2018, HOU Carlos Correa (22) in 2015 and CWS Alexei Ramirez (21) in 2008.

- Fouled a ball off his right shin on July 2 vs. BAL, sustaining a right shin bone bruise, then was removed from his Aug 21 rehab game with Triple-A Durham with a left quadriceps strain, a separate and unrelated injury…reinstated from the 60-day IL on Sep 22, appearing in 6 games (5 starts) to end the season.
- At the time of his injury, led the Rays with 16 HR and 49 RBI and ranked 2nd among major league rookies in both categories…his 16 HR tied Evan Longoria in 2008 for the most by a Rays rookie before the All-Star break…was on pace to break the club rookie record for homers before his injury.
- In Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey of major league managers, coaches and executives, was ranked as the AL's 2nd-best Defensive Second Baseman behind NYY DJ LeMahieu.
- On March 20, signed a six-year contract through 2024, with club options for the 2025 and 2026 seasons…the deal will pay him at least $24 million, and up to $49 million if options are exercised and incentives are reached…it was the fourth time the Rays signed a player with less than a year of service time to a long-term extension, following Chris Archer (2014), Matt Moore (2011) and Evan Longoria (2008).

- His 6 HR in April were a club rookie record, passing Steven Souza Jr. (4) in 2015.
- On May 2 at KC, hit a 2-run homer in the 9th inning off Wily Peralta to give the Rays a 3-1 lead…the homer came just minutes after he was named the AL Rookie of the Month for April.
- On May 8 vs. ARI, struck out five times in a 13-inning loss, the first 5-SO game in club history…from May 8-10 vs. ARI/NYY, struck out in eight straight plate appearances to tie Tomás Pérez from April 28-30, 2006 for the club record.
- Hit safely in 12 consecutive games from April 22–May 8, one shy of tying the longest hitting streak by a rookie in franchise history.
- Won the Al Lopez Award, presented to the club's most outstanding rookie in spring training…led the Grapefruit League with 8 2B, ranked 2nd with 17 RBI, tied for 2nd with 11 XBH, tied for 3rd with 20 hits and ranked 3rd with 37 total bases…hit .377/.411/.698 (20-for-53) in 18 games.

- Became the fourth rookie in franchise history selected to the All-Star Team, joining Evan Longoria in 2008, Lance Carter in 2003 and Rolando Arrojo in 1998.

X-RAY REPORT

- José developed his own brand of coffee along with Texas-based roaster Primos Coffee…the product line, called "Cafecito" after his own nickname, features his number, signature and silhouette on the packaging…in the Cardinals clubhouse, he often wore a T-shirt with his likeness emerging from a coffee cup and the words "Wake up with Cafecito"…more than 50 percent of the coffee's proceeds are donated to charity…the coffee line also has its own Instagram account (@primoscafecito).
- His father, the late Carlos "Cafe" Martínez, played seven seasons in the major leagues and was responsible for the fly ball that famously bounced off of José Canseco's head for a home run in 1993…his father's nickname is the origin of his own, "Cafecito," which means "little coffee."
- Martínez's happiness and joy are infectious to those around him…former Rays and current Angels Manager Joe Maddon remarked: "Everything about him just draws you toward him. He's got an effervescence about him, there's no question." …his own manager in St. Louis, Mike Shildt, said of him, "He has a natural enthusiasm for this game, for life. His glass isn't half-full—it's just full. And I describe him as a 'human Red Bull.'"
- In 2018, José developed a pregame tradition with fans…a teammate would point out a fan in the upper decks and José would attempt to throw them a ball…the practice became popular with teammates who would offer suggestions on which fan or dare him to try to reach the stadium's highest points…fans began to anticipate the practice and would stand in the upper deck as he approached.
- His younger brother, Teodoro, spent time in the Rangers and Yankees minor league systems.

X-RAY REPORT

- When he was young, Brendan would call his father, Bruce, on his way home from work several times a week to ask him to go to a local field and take batting practice…he'd hit every ball in the bucket, then the two would pick them up and do it again.
- Brendan's travel ball coach predicted he would play Division I baseball when he was just 12 years old…his father responded, "let's wait and see."…to this day, when his father sees the coach, he doesn't miss the chance to say, "I told you."
- He made his varsity debut as a freshman in high school…his first at-bat resulted in a 2-run single and he completed an immaculate 1st inning by striking out the side on nine pitches…the game was called after one inning due to snow.
- Brendan's parents bought a gently-used Saturn sedan to travel to his baseball commitments when he was young…when they finally got rid of it, it had close to 200,000 miles racked up with routine trips to tournaments in North Carolina and South Carolina from western Pennsylvania, as well as later 1,000-mile round trips to Louisville when Brendan's Cardinals were at home on the weekends…he bought them a new car after he was drafted.
- Brendan attended the MLB Rookie Career Development Program in Miami in January along with Mike Brosseau and Vidal Bruján… the four-day orientation program included media training, time management strategies and financial planning.

- In his first major league action, made 13 apps (11 starts) on the mound, a start at designated hitter and was used as a pinch-hitter three times…was with the Rays for five stints: June 29–July 5, July 13 (26th Man), July 19, July 31–Aug 19 and Sep 3 through the end of the season.
- Pitched to a 1.69 ERA (16-IP, 3-ER) through his first 3 starts, but after that went 1-4 with a 6.82 ERA (33-IP, 25-ER) in 10 apps (8 starts).
- Held left-handed batters to a .220/.250/.320 (11-for-50) line without a homer…righties hit .284/.344/.527 (42-for-148) with 8 HR, all coming over a stretch of 7 starts from July 5–Aug 19.
- Allowed 1 BB (or fewer) in each of his first 6 starts, passing Nathan Eovaldi (5) for the longest streak by a traditional starter beginning his Rays career.
- On June 29 vs. TEX, made his major league debut, retired his first 16 BF and only allowed 1 hit over six scoreless innings…it was the longest scoreless outing for a Ray making his major league debut, passing Scott Kazmir (5 IP) on Aug 23, 2004 at SEA…his outing tied SEA Ken Cloude on Aug 9, 1997 vs. CWS and CIN Wayne Simpson on April 9, 1970 at LAD for the 2nd-longest perfect game bid in a debut in the expansion era (since 1961)…the major league record is held by PIT Nick Kingham (6.2 IP) on April 29, 2018 vs. STL…Brendan's only hit allowed was a 1-out, 6th-inning single by Danny Santana that left the bat at 66.8 mph, according to StatCast.
- Was the second AL pitcher since Baseball Reference data is available (1908) to allow 2 baserunners (or fewer) in a scoreless start of 6 IP (or more) in his debut, following MIL Steve Woodard on July 28, 1997 vs. TOR (G1).
- Was the 6th-fastest in franchise history to make his major league debut as a Ray after being drafted by the club, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…he was also the fastest to do so in more than a decade, since David Price made his major league debut on Sep 14, 2008 at NYY after being selected No. 1 overall in the 2007 June Draft.

- Became the fifth lefty to make his major league debut for the Rays as a starter, first since Blake Snell on April 23, 2016 at NYY…at 23 years, 193 days, was the youngest starting pitcher used by the Rays since Snell's debut (23.141).

TWO-WAY PLAYERS AND POSITION PLAYERS PITCHING

New for 2020, a position player may only appear as a pitcher in extra innings or in any game in which his team is losing or winning by at least 7 runs when he enters as a pitcher.

In light of this new rule, as well as the new pitcher limit rules, MLB has introduced criteria for players to be specially designated as "two-way players" (that is, able to pitch during a game without counting toward a club's pitcher limits). A player will qualify as a two-way player only if he accrues both:

[i] at least 20 IP in the major leagues; and

[ii] at least 20 major league games started (as a position player or designated hitter) with at least 3 PA in each of those games, in either the current regular season or previous regular season.

The club must designate that player as a two-way player in advance of that game. Once a club designates a qualified two-way player that designation will remain in effect, and cannot change, for the remainder of that regular season and postseason.

The only player who already meets these requirements as a two-way player entering 2020 is LAA Shohei Ohtani.

X-RAY REPORT

- Charlie's gift for singing and playing music is well-known among teammates and friends…he taught himself to play guitar early in his professional baseball career and, despite not being able to read music, has written 10-15 original songs… publicly, he has performed at the wedding of former Braves teammate and good friend Chuck James, on stage at Pirates Fan Fest and various bars in the minor leagues…at live music venues, his teammates would sometimes ask the performers if Charlie could take the stage during their breaks…he even went as far as booking professional studio time in Providence, R.I., but the tracks are lost to time.
- Charlie and his wife, Cindy, live in Bradenton with their four children: Cam, Grace, Benji and Emelia…"Cam" is an acronym for Charles Alfred Morton V, his full name…the Astros clinched the AL West on the day Emelia was born in 2018 and teammate George Springer video called Charlie at the hospital from the clubhouse celebration.
- While recovering from Tommy John surgery, he discovered an interest in barbecuing and woodworking…he's serious about his barbecue, often rising at 3 a.m. on the day of a big cookout and not finishing his food preparations until 4 or 5 p.m. …he also fashioned the kitchen table the family eats its meals on at home.
- It's suspected that former Pirates teammate Jared Hughes has made unauthorized edits to Charlie's Wikipedia page several times, including to say he was "infamous for owning a steakhouse and is a steak connoisseur."
- Charlie has been heavily involved with supporting military personnel in his career…his grandfathers Charles Morton Jr. and Bob Pfeilsticker both fought in World War II…Pfeilsticker was an Army Air Corps navigator who flew 50 combat missions and also spent time in the Philadelphia Athletics minor league system.

RAYS & MLB VISIT CUBA

On March 20-22, 2016, the Rays traveled to Havana, Cuba, after being selected via lottery to be the first Major League Baseball team to visit Cuba since the 1999 Orioles. The voyage coincided with the historic diplomatic visit of President Barack Obama, the first sitting U.S. President to visit Cuba since Calvin Coolidge in 1928. Among the 55,000 in attendance at Estadio Latinoamericano for the March 21 contest were many dignitaries, including President Obama and the First Lady, Cuban President Raúl Castro, Cuban-born stars Luis Tiant and José Cardenal, MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred, Derek Jeter and Joe Torre. The Rays defeated the Cuban National Team, 4-1.

There were 17 Cuban-born players on 2019 Opening Day rosters, the 5th-most of any country behind the U.S., Dominican Republic, Venezuela and Puerto Rico. The Rays have had 12 Cuban-born players in franchise history, and OF Randy Arozarena has a chance to join this group.

X-RAY REPORT

- Colin proposed to his fiancé, Jessica, in January while the two were in Houston at the Color Factory, an art museum…he popped the question in a room where confetti perpetually rains down from above.
- He won his school's third grade spelling bee to earn the right to compete at the district level, where he was subsequently "destroyed" and made an early exit.
- Colin was called up to make his debut for the second game of a doubleheader in Boston… the move was not official until the first game concluded, so he was not permitted in the Rays clubhouse until that time…as the first game ended, he was still sitting in an Uber ride in traffic…he eventually got out and walked from the downtown hotel to Fenway Park with his large Rays bag as Red Sox fans streamed the opposite direction…he arrived drenched in sweat 40 minutes before the game and was on the mound in the 2nd inning.
- He only played basketball up to his freshman year of high school, but has been able to dunk since his senior year…the first time he dunked on someone was at a local gym, just in time for his best friend's dad to walk in and witness it—the only person he knew who did.
- Colin was college teammates with fellow hurler Jalen Beeks and bullpen catcher Jean Ramirez at Arkansas.

2019 SEASON

- Selected from Triple-A Durham on June 8, between games of a doubleheader at BOS, and made his major league debut in the second game…stayed in the majors the rest of the season, making a team-high 51 apps over that span.
- Led AL lefty relievers with a .181 opp avg. (33-for-182), and ranked 7th overall among AL relievers…min. 50 IP, his 12.54 SO/9 IP ratio ranked 4th among AL lefties behind NYY Aroldis Chapman (13.42), BOS Chris Sale (13.32) and CLE Brad Hand (13.19).
- Yielded 9 HR in 51.2 IP, but only 1 HR in his last 23 apps spanning 22 IP…27.3 pct. (9 of 33) of his hits allowed were homers…six of his 9 HR either tied the game (2) or gave the opponent a lead (4), with all six of those in the 7th inning (or later).
- Pitched to a 3.46 ERA (13-IP, 5-ER) over his last 15 apps, from Aug 30 through season's end…this stretch lowered his ERA from 5.12 to 4.70.
- Began his major league career with 27 SO and 1 BB through 17 apps as well as 57 SO and 7 BB through 35 apps, but after that totaled 12 BB and 15 SO in his last 16 apps.
- Went 4-1 with a 2.15 ERA (29.1-IP, 7-ER) and 8.20 SO/BB ratio in 28 apps at Tropicana Field, but 1-4 with a 8.06 ERA (22.1-IP, 20-ER) and 2.21 SO/BB ratio in 23 apps on the road.

- Days after the Padres made him their top pick out of Mississippi State in 2013, Hunter caught a possum with his bare hands as a friend captured the achievement on video…the clip made the rounds on social media…the next day, his coaches suggested he cease the practice, since the Padres might not appreciate it as much as his friends.
- Hunter and Oakland Raiders wide receiver Hunter Renfrow share a phonetic connection… Hunter reached out to his football counterpart after receiving tweets from confused fans trying to congratulate Renfrow for his 88 receiving yards for Clemson in the 2016 National Championship game…the two began exchanging messages and formed a friendship before finally meeting in person when the Padres visited Oracle Park in June 2019.
- He met his wife, Courtney, while the two were in high school at Copiah (Miss.) Academy, where she was a state champion tennis player…both love to hunt, fish and enjoy the outdoors.
- Hunter has a dog named Timber, a boykin spaniel, and guarantees he is the most beautiful dog you've ever seen.
- He grew up a fan of Chipper Jones and the Braves…TBS heavily featured the Braves and was one of the six channels he had at home growing up in Mississippi.

- Trevor spent two offseasons as a substitute teacher for his home school district...he would wake every morning at 4 a.m. to go to the gym, then head to school to teach anything from science to physical education...he'd go to the field afterward to work on his pitching.

- On Aug 29 at HOU, recorded his first win since June 2 at SD, going 0-7 over 11 apps (8 starts) in between...did not allow a run in 6 IP, pitching out of his 2-on, 1-out jam in the 1st inning and allowing only one baserunner over his next 5 IP.

- Growing up in nearby Upland, Calif., Daniel attended Angels games with his late father, Don, as a kid…when the Rays visited Anaheim in 2018, hundreds of his friends and family were on hand to witness his first career grand slam…"When I swung, it was like something took over my body. It was the weirdest thing. I feel my dad's presence out here all the time." … Don's encouragement—"believe you belong"—is now tattooed on Daniel's arm.
- Robertson delivered another grand slam, the first walk-off slam in Rays history, on July 22, 2018, but made national news for what he did after the game was over…with his postgame obligations finished, he drove to Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital in St. Petersburg to visit 15-year-old Joey Johnston…Johnston, the son of a local sportswriter, had suffered a broken neck and back in an earlier accident…"I did that for you, bud," Robertson told him…he homered again the next night, and pointed to a bracelet he was wearing in Joey's honor.

X-RAY REPORT

- Chaz and his wife, Sarah, welcomed their first son, Blaise, on Dec 1, 2019…they also have two daughters: Mila (6) and Taylin (4).
- One of his passions is deer hunting…he taught himself how to process the meat through trial and error…he found that soaking it in salt water for a few hours reduces the gamey taste…the meat he treats and stores lasts the family all year.
- Chaz's deceivingly grim appearance has earned him some good-natured ribbing by teammates over the years…then-Orioles teammate Zack Britton said he increased their bullpen's intimidation factor "exponentially"…while with the Diamondbacks, he was approached by Willie Bloomquist, who said, "A.J. [Pollock] wants to know, but he's too scared to ask you himself. Have you ever been in jail or killed anybody?"…it was the third time Roe had been asked something similar since his call-up.
- Roe's first name came from a former football teammate of his father's named Chaz Czack…his brother's name is Czack (pronounced "Zack").
- His father, Donald, played football at the University of Kentucky and once made a solo tackle against running back Herschel Walker…Donald played high school football and baseball against Rays bullpen coach Stan Boroski.
- Chaz grew up a Pittsburgh sports fan…his great uncle is Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski.

2019 SEASON

- Led the Rays with 71 appearances, surpassing his career high from 2018 (61).
- Went 1-0 with a 2.66 ERA (23.2-IP, 7-ER) in 32 apps after the All-Star break, compared to 0-3 with a 5.27 ERA (27.1-IP, 16-ER) before it.
- Yielded only 3 HR in 51 IP, all before the All-Star break…last allowed one on July 2 vs. BAL.
- Issued 31 BB, including 22 BB to 174 right-handed batters faced (12.6 pct.)—up from 9 BB to 151 righties in 2018 (6.0 pct.)…however, lowered this to 8.7 pct. (9 of 104) beginning on June 13.
- According to FanGraphs, threw his slider for a career-high 64.8 pct. of total pitches.
- Missed 9 games wrapped around the All-Star break due to a stint on the 10-day IL from July 9-19 with a right flexor strain.
- Through the end of May, recorded a 2.20 ERA (16.1-IP, 4-ER) in 24 apps…from the start of June until the All-Star break, pitched to a 9.82 ERA (11-IP, 12-ER) in 15 apps…allowed run(s) in six of these 15 apps and multiple runs in five of them.
- Made his third straight Opening Day roster.
- On June 18 at NYY, allowed 3 runs and a career-high 5 hits, suffering a 6-3 loss…entered with a 2-1 lead with 1 out in the 5th inning and allowed four consecutive hits to start his outing.
- On July 31 at BOS, pitched around a leadoff single and a 2-out walk in the 9th inning for the second save of his career.
- On Aug 27 at HOU, yielded a career-high 5 runs and career-high-tying 5 hits in a 15-1 Rays loss.
- POSTSEASON: In Game 3 of the ALDS vs. HOU, started the 6th inning and allowed three consecutive hits, including a 2-run single by Yuli Gurriel, before retiring his last 2 BF.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- According to FanGraphs, has thrown 50.9 pct. sliders in his career, and has thrown 58.0 pct. sliders over the last three seasons.
- Has limited right-handed hitters to a .211 avg. (110-for-521) in his career.

- In 2018, made a then-career-high 61 apps in his first full major league season, 3rd on the club behind Sergio Romo (73) and José Alvarado (70)…was on the 10-day IL from July 7–Aug 13 with a left meniscus tear.
- His 32 holds tied Alvarado for the AL lead…he and Alvarado tied for 3rd in Rays history, behind Joel Peralta in 2013 (41) and 2012 (37).
- On June 9 vs. SEA, inherited 2-on, 2-out in the 8th inning and induced a Jean Segura groundout to end the frame…faced the minimum in the 9th inning, erasing a leadoff single with a 1-4-3 double play for his first career save.

- With the Braves, made his first career Opening Day roster…made 3 apps in April but was on the injured list for most of the first half with a right lat strain…reinstated from the 60-day IL and designated for assignment on July 6, and outrighted to Triple-A Gwinnett on July 13.
- After being outrighted by the Braves, allowed 3 runs in his only app for Gwinnett…was 0-3 with a 3.00 ERA (21-IP, 7-ER) and 35 SO to 5 BB in 17 apps with Durham.
- In 2016, was 2-0 with a 3.64 ERA (29.2-IP, 12-ER) and 37 SO over 30 apps in the majors, split between the Orioles (9) and Braves (21).
- Began the season with Triple-A Norfolk…selected to the Orioles major league roster on June 30…designated for assignment on July 29 and claimed off waivers by the Braves.

> The Athletic

- When he makes his Rays debut, Tsutsugo will become the fourth Japanese-born player in franchise history, following Hideo Nomo (2005), Akinori Iwamura (2007-09) and Hideki Matsui (2012)…Iwamura is the only other Japanese-born player to begin his major league career with the Rays—he signed a three-year contract after playing with the Tokyo Yakult Swallows.

X-RAY REPORT

- Ryan and his wife, Nicole, were married on Nov 9 in Orlando at the Omni Hotel and Resort at ChampionsGate…past and present Rays in attendance included Austin Meadows, Austin Pruitt, Mallex Smith, Ryne Stanek and Shane McClanahan…former Rays pitcher Jake Faria was a groomsman…the two then honeymooned in Antigua for a week.
- The first thing Ryan and Nicole always do when traveling together is identify a go-to coffee shop when they arrive in a city.
- Ryan's alma mater, Old Dominion, lines its outfield wall with photos of major leaguers that have come through the program…Ryan and Rays bench coach Matt Quatraro were both invited back for a banquet in honor of being added to the wall in January 2019.
- He grew up a Rays fan and kept some 2008 World Series gear in his bedroom of his Lakeland home, which he found after he was acquired in a four-player trade from the Mariners…he admired David Price, James Shields and Scott Kazmir as a youngster, and still has a Kazmir jersey he received as a 15-year-old hanging in his closet.
- Ryan and Nicole own a 2-year-old chocolate lab named Cooper.
- Nicole won a national championship in lacrosse with Florida Southern in 2016…she began playing when she was eight but happily retired from the sport when her collegiate career ended.

2019 SEASON

- Made 28 apps (14 starts) over four stints with the Rays: Opening Day–April 24, May 5 (did not pitch), May 23–July 1, July 14 through season's end…ranked 2nd on the team with 141.2 IP behind Charlie Morton (194.2).
- Is the only pitcher in club history with double-digit wins in his first two seasons in the majors…his 27 wins are the most in franchise history through his first two seasons.
- Yielded 20 BB for a 1.27 BB/9 IP ratio…min. 100 IP, ranked 3rd in the majors behind LAD Hyun-Jin Ryu (1.18) and SEA/ARI Mike Leake (1.23) and 2nd in club history to David Price (1.21) in 2014.
- Recorded a 1.00 WHIP, which was 3rd among AL pitchers with at least 100 IP behind HOU Justin Verlander (0.80) and HOU Gerrit Cole (0.89).
- Min. 100 IP, led the majors in averaging 14.5 pitches per inning, ahead of ATL Mike Soroka (14.6)…his 3.65 pitches/BF was 7th in the majors.
- From the start of his third stint on May 23 through season's end, went 9-5 with a 3.60 ERA (125-IP, 50-ER) in 23 apps (14 starts)…his 1.15 BB/9 IP ratio over that stretch led the AL, while he ranked 3rd with a 0.95 WHIP.
- Ended the season on a winless streak of 8 starts, the longest drought in his career…went 0-3 with a 5.44 ERA (43-IP, 26-ER) over this stretch…took the loss in three straight starts from Sep 15-28.
- His last 9 apps came as a starter, while his first 19 outings included 5 starts and 14 relief apps…was 3-5 with a 4.31 ERA (85.2-IP, 41-ER) in 14 starts and 8-1 with a 3.86 ERA (56-IP, 24-ER) in 14 relief apps, primarily following an opener.
- His nine road wins tied for 5th in the majors.
- On May 23 at CLE, was recalled from Triple-A Durham and went a then-career-high 7.1 IP for the win…started and retired 16 of his first 17 BF, including a stretch of 12 straight following a José Ramírez 2nd-inning single…his only runs allowed came on a 2-run double by Jordan Luplow in the 6th.

- On June 2 vs. MIN, started and yielded a career-high-tying 7 runs in a 9-7 loss...induced 4 GDP, tying the club record and first time since Mark Hendrickson on June 9, 2004 vs. SF.
- On June 8 at BOS (G1), started and went a then-career-high 7.2 IP in a 9-2 win, and his 110 pitches remain a career high...allowed an unearned run in the 2nd inning and a solo homer to Jackie Bradley Jr. in the 8th.
- On June 27 at MIN, went three scoreless as the last of nine pitchers used in the club's 5-2, 18-inning win, tied for the longest game by innings in franchise history...pitched around leadoff singles in the 17th and 18th innings.
- On July 14 at BAL, replaced Ryne Stanek after two perfect innings and retired his first 18 BF...the combined perfect game bid was broken up on the first pitch of the 9th inning, when Hanser Alberto singled against the shift...his 18 consecutive batters retired tied for the 3rd-longest at any point in a game in club history, behind Matt Garza (22) on July 26, 2010 vs. DET and Chris Archer (19) on July 29, 2015 vs. DET...yielded back-to-back singles to start the 9th, then got a called strikeout and was replaced.
- On Aug 11 at SEA, faced his former organization for the first time and earned a 1-0 victory...did not allow a run in 8.2 IP, the longest outing of his career and the longest by a Ray since Matt Andriese's 2-hit shutout on May 14, 2016 vs. OAK...was attempting to throw the Rays first complete game since Andriese, which would have snapped a major-league-record streak of 571 games without one...the only baserunners against him were a 1st-inning error and singles in the 2nd, 4th and 5th innings; did not allow a runner to reach second base...retired his last 14 BF and was removed with 2 outs and the bases empty in the 9th...threw first-pitch strikes to 23 of 29 BF, reached a 3-ball count on only three batters and did not allow a walk.
- On Aug 17 vs. DET, made a second consecutive scoreless start, extending his scoreless streak to 17.2 IP...recorded a career-high 10 SO, but received no decision in the 1-0 win.
- POSTSEASON: Made three scoreless relief apps in the ALDS against the Astros, recording the win in a bullpen game in Game 4 vs. HOU...stranded an inherited runner with a Josh Reddick lineout to end the 2nd inning...pitched a perfect 3rd, then went single, flyout, double in the 4th and was replaced...was the beneficiary of a well-executed relay on a Yordan Álvarez double, with an 8-6-2 putout of José Altuve.

X-RAY REPORT

- Mike and his wife, Alyssa, will welcome their second child in April: a daughter, Paisley…their son, Rhett, was born April of last year…their beagle, Zoey, and Australian shepherd, Sadie, round out the family.
- Following his return from paternity leave on April 22 last season, Mike remarked to media pregame that he hoped to benefit from newfound "dad strength"…he later belted his first home run of the season in the 7th inning—a tie-breaking 2-run shot…after the game, he told the Tampa Bay Times: "It was something special. And then to get the [photos of Rhett watching] and everything afterward, it's the icing on the cake."
- Mike's parents met in Italy while playing in the country's premier baseball and softball leagues…his father, Greg, was selected by the Yankees in the 1981 June Draft and is a southeast crosschecker for the Reds…his mother, Paola, was a catcher on the Italian national softball team…she was born in Bologna, Italy, and taught him to speak a little Italian as a kid, but he lost it as he grew older.
- Mike and Alyssa were married in October 2012, after his junior season at Florida…they then left the next day for their "honeymoon" in Arizona for Mike to participate in the Arizona Fall League.
- Mike grew up a Marlins fan and has memories of attending games at Joe Robbie Stadium, now Hard Rock Stadium…Édgar Rentería and Jeff Conine were his favorites.

- His first 2 HR came in back-to-back games after returning from the paternity list…homered for a third time in 9 games on May 3 at BAL, then went a career-high 25 games without one.
- On July 13 at BAL (G1), hit his 100th career homer, a solo shot off Jimmy Yacabonis.

NON-ROSTER INVITES

Over the past several years, many players who have come to Rays camp as non-roster invites went on to impact the big league club. In 2019, infielder Mike Brosseau—who signed with the Rays as an non-drafted free agent in 2016—appeared in 51 games, including three from the pitcher's mound. Right-handed pitcher Oliver Drake ranked 6th among AL relievers with a .181 opp avg (36-for-199). Lefthander Colin Poche pitched in 51 games out of the bullpen, totaling 72 SO in 51.2 IP (12.54 SO/9 IP ratio).

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are two types of waiver requests: outright waivers and unconditional release waivers. Both types are irrevocable. Outright waivers are required for a major league club to assign a player outright to a minor league club. Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year to release a player. After the July 31 trade deadline, the only way clubs can acquire major league players until after the World Series is through waiver claims–a new rule introduced in 2019.

ACTIVE ROSTER LIMITS

New for 2020, the active roster limit for Opening Day through Aug 31–as well as postseason games–has increased from 25 to 26 players. During these periods, clubs will be permitted to carry a maximum of 13 pitchers. From Sep 1 through the end of the regular season (including tiebreaker games), all clubs must carry 28 players on the active roster with a maximum of 14 pitchers.

The previous "26th Man Rule" for doubleheaders has been replaced by the "27th Man Rule." The 27th player will not count toward any pitcher roster limits described above.

Also new for 2020, clubs may not reinstate pitchers or two-way players from the injured list until 15 days have elapsed from the date of the initial placement for such injury (previously 10 days). In addition, the option period for pitchers has been lengthened to 15 days.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each major league club. These local winners are announced in September on Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Edgar Martínez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Derek Jeter, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken Jr. The Rays were represented on the ballot by Kevin Kiermaier in 2019.

ALL-STAR BALLOTING

In 2019, Major League Baseball introduced a revamped All-Star balloting process that features two phases of fan voting to determine the starting position players. The top three vote-getters at each position (and top nine outfielders) from The Primary phase advance to The Starters Election. Fans then elect nine starters to the AL All-Star Team and eight to the NL squad.

The pitchers and reserves for both All-Star teams—totaling 23 for the AL and 24 for the NL—will be determined through a combination of player balloting and selections made by the Commissioner's Office. The managers of the teams that played in the previous year's World Series then choose the batting orders and starting pitchers.

Also introduced in 2019, should the All-Star Game go to extra innings, both clubs begin the 10th inning—and all subsequent innings—with a runner on second base.

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted on several occasions between fans, players, managers and MLB. In 1933-34, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for All-Stars through newspaper ads featuring official ballots. From 1935-46, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, returned to the fans from 1947-57. However, a case of ballot-stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958-69.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, All-Star fan balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside of state and national elections.

SPECIAL SEATS

Fans at Tropicana Field will notice two golden seats, one white seat and one seat memorialized with a plaque in the right field seating area. The golden seat in the third row of Section 148 is the location where the Rays first home run landed, a two-run shot hit by Wade Boggs off DET Justin Thompson in the 6th inning of the Rays inaugural game on March 31, 1998. The other golden seat, in Section 144, marks the spot where Boggs' 3,000th hit landed, a two-run home run off CLE Chris Haney on Aug 7, 1999. The white seat in Section 140 (Row T, Seat 10) marks the spot where Dan Johnson's two-out, 9th-inning, game-tying home run landed against the Yankees in Game 162 of the 2011 season. Three innings later, Evan Longoria hit a walk-off homer to left field giving the Rays an 8-7 win, clinching the AL Wild Card.

Finally, on July 11, 2015, the Rays dedicated a special seat above the right field walkway that will always remain empty in remembrance of prisoners of war (POW) and those missing in action (MIA). Then-president of baseball operations Matt Silverman and pitcher Matt Moore joined World War II veteran and former POW Andrew H. Hines Jr. and Rep. David Jolly of the 13th Congressional District in the pregame ceremony.

THREE-BATTER MINIMUM

New for 2020, the starting pitcher and any relief pitcher must pitch to a minimum of three batters, until the batters are retired or reach base, or until the half-inning is over. An exception exists if the substitute pitcher sustains injury or illness which, in the Crew Chief's judgment, incapacitates him from pitching. This rule was created in an effort to reduce the number of pitching changes and, in turn, cut down the average game time.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Rays have pulled off three triple plays in club history. The most recent came Sep 27, 2011 vs. NYY when Russell Martin grounded into a 5-4-3 triple play (Evan Longoria to Ben Zobrist to Sean Rodríguez).

On Sep 2, 2006 vs. SEA, the Rays pulled off their second triple play, the first at Tropicana Field, in the top of the 1st inning. With runners on first and third, J.P. Howell threw a strike on a 3-2 count to Raul Ibañez for the first out. Catcher Dioner Navarro threw the ball to shortstop Ben Zobrist to get Adrián Beltré, who was running from first on the pitch. Zobrist then threw back to Navarro to nail José López as he tried to score from third to complete the triple play. It was the first 2-6-2 triple play in major league history.

On Sep 13, 2002 at TOR, the Rays executed the first triple play in club history (L-4-6-3) with Dewon Brazelton on the mound in his major league debut.

Rays opponents have also turned three triple plays, and Sean Rodríguez was the batter in the two most recent. Both of Rodríguez's were of the 5-4-3 variety—April 17, 2014 vs. NYY and Aug 16, 2011 at BOS—making him the first player to hit into a pair of triple plays since ATL Chipper Jones (2007, 1996) and before that, SD Tony Gwynn (1995, 1991). In 2011, Rodríguez became the first player since STL Gregg Jefferies in 1993 to hit into a triple play and participate in one defensively in the same season.

On June 11, 2006 at KC, the Royals turned a 8-1-6-5 triple play when Russell Branyan's apparent sacrifice fly was nullified upon appeal, when it was ruled that Aubrey Huff had left third base early on the tag-up. Rocco Baldelli was also caught on the play trying to advance from first to second base.

SPLASH DOWN

Since the Rays Touch Tank opened in 2006 in right-center field, 7 HR have been hit into the water. Only two of those 7 HR were by Rays players: José Lobatón hit a walk-off solo homer in the 9th inning of Game 3 of the ALDS vs. Boston (Koji Uehara) to save the Rays from elimination, and Brad Miller did it against the Yankees on July 31, 2016.

CATWALK RUNDOWN

The four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field are labeled the A-, B-, C- and D-rings, with the lowest being the D-ring. Any fair ball that hits the lower two catwalks (C, D) is a home run. A fair ball that hits one of the top two catwalks (A, B) is in play. Any fair ball that stays on one of the top two catwalks is a ground-rule double. A foul ball that hits one of the catwalks is a dead ball.

- The D-ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate.
- The C-ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 feet behind home plate.
- The B-ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate.
- The A-ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate.

In 22 seasons, 179 fair balls have hit catwalks: C-ring (95), B (41), D (37), A (6). This includes two during the relocated Rangers-Astros series in 2017 due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey. Not included in that total is one fair ball that struck the roof, off the bat of MIN Miguel Sanó on Aug 7, 2016.

Three fair balls have hit catwalks in the postseason: Evan Longoria homered off the C-ring in Game 1 of the 2008 ALDS vs. CWS (Javier Vázquez), B.J. Upton homered off the C-ring in Game 6 of the 2008 ALCS vs. BOS (Josh Beckett) and Willy Adames homered off the D-ring in Game 4 of the 2019 ALDS vs. HOU (Justin Verlander).

Seven times in Tropicana Field history, a fair ball has hit a catwalk and not come down: TEX Joey Gallo, June 30, 2019 (D-ring); TB Avisaíl García, April 18, 2019 vs. BAL (D-ring); TB John Jaso, Sep 17, 2015 vs. BAL (C-ring); BOS David Ortiz, Sep 17, 2008 (D-ring); BOS Jason Bay, Sep 15, 2008 (C-ring); Carlos Peña, May 26, 2008 vs. TEX (B-ring); and José Canseco, May 2, 1999 vs. DET (B-ring).

Evan Longoria is the all-time leader in fair balls off the catwalk (11) and catwalk home runs (8). Álex Rodríguez and David Ortiz hit the catwalks five times, most of any visiting players. Carlos Peña hit the catwalks five times in 2007, most by any player in one season. All told, 39 different Rays have hit balls off the catwalks in the regular season: Evan Longoria (10), Jonny Gomes (8), Carlos Peña (8), Greg Vaughn (6), Fred McGriff (4), Steven Souza Jr. (3), José Canseco (3), Ben Grieve (3), Willy Adames (2), Curt Casali (2), Carl Crawford (2), Vinny Castilla (2), Avisaíl García (2), Travis Lee (2), Rocco Baldelli (1), Tim Beckham (1), Corey Dickerson (1), Logan Forsythe (1), Nick Franklin (1), Aubrey Huff (1), John Jaso (1), Matt Joyce (1), Pete LaForest (1), Brandon Lowe (1), Brendan McKay (1), Brad Miller (1), Logan Morrison (1), Eduardo Perez (1), Tommy Pham (1), Sean Rodríguez (1), Jared Sandberg (1), Kelly Shoppach (1), Grady Sizemore (1), Paul Sorrento (1), Bubba Trammell (1), B.J. Upton (1), Rickie Weeks Jr. (1), Gerald Williams (1) and Randy Winn (1).

DID YOU KNOW?

LET'S PLAY TWO!

The Rays have played 32 doubleheaders in their history, going 4-14-14 (W-L-T). They are 1-4-6 in traditional doubleheaders and 3-10-8 in split doubleheaders. The four times they swept a doubleheader occurred on May 1, 2014 at BOS, June 24, 2012 at PHI, April 28, 2011 at MIN and Sep 23, 2008 at BAL.

Three of these doubleheaders occurred at Tropicana Field, all of them traditional, and each time they split the twin bill. The first, Sep 30, 2004 vs. DET, was a result of games rescheduled due to Hurricane Frances four weeks prior. They lost the first game, 8-0, and won the second, 6-4. On June 10, 2017 vs. OAK, they hosted Major League Baseball's first scheduled twin bill since July 16, 2011 (Angels at Athletics). They won the first game, 6-5, on a 10th-inning walk-off single by Evan Longoria. Forty minutes after the celebration, they began the next game, a 7-2 loss. On Sep 3, 2019 vs. BAL, the series finale was moved up a day as part of a doubleheader as Hurricane Dorian approached. They lost the first game, 4-2, and won the second, 2-0.

DEVIL RAYS INAUGURAL GAME

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. – Hall of Famers Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Al Lopez and Monte Irvin threw out the ceremonial first pitches and minutes later, at 5:08 p.m. on March 31, 1998, major league baseball was born in Tampa Bay as Wilson Álvarez delivered a ball to Tigers leadoff hitter Brian Hunter. Álvarez retired the Tigers 1-2-3 in the first inning, then nine of the next 13 batters hit safely. The Rays fell behind 11-0 in the 5th inning before Wade Boggs hit a two-run homer off Justin Thompson in the 6th to account for the first two runs in Rays history. The Devil Rays rallied for four runs in the 9th inning and left the tying run in the on-deck circle when Paul Sorrento struck out to end the game. Tampa native Luis Gonzalez hit the first home run at Tropicana Field and added a single and double.

DEVIL RAYS FIRST WIN

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. – April 1, but it was no joke, the Devil Rays won their first game. In game two of the season-opening series, the Devil Rays rallied from a 3-0, 1st-inning deficit and banged out 18 hits on their way to an 11-8 victory. Rookie Rolando Arrojo earned the win in his major league debut and Fred McGriff had three run-scoring hits including a two-run single in the Rays decisive three-run 8th inning. The Rays batted around in the 4th and 8th innings (they batted around four times in the three-game series). Two-out, RBI singles by Wade Boggs and McGriff helped the Rays jump ahead in the 4th inning after trailing 3-2. The Rays got a hit in every inning except the 5th.

101 YEARS OF MLB IN ST. PETERSBURG

THIS SEASON MARKS THE 101ST YEAR MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL HAS HAD A PRESENCE IN ST. PETERSBURG, DATING BACK TO 1914 WHEN THE ST. LOUIS BROWNS OPENED SPRING TRAINING WORKOUTS.

MLB has also had a presence in St. Pete every year since travel restrictions during World War II prohibited teams from traveling south for spring training from 1943-45.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18), Boston Braves (1922-37), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95) and the Devil Rays/Rays (1998-2008).

In 1910, a former Pittsburgh laundry owner named Al Lang moved to St. Petersburg to benefit his health. He soon became interested in the local economy and focused on trying to help the sagging tourism industry. As a baseball fan, he believed the answer was to attract a major league team for spring training.

Lang convinced the St. Louis Browns, under manager Branch Rickey, to move to St. Petersburg in 1914. A baseball committee, formed to attract a major league team to the city, raised $20,000 to buy a large tract of land for a ballpark. The site chosen for the field was Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Pete, where a 2,000-seat grandstand was built.

The first game between two major league teams in St. Petersburg took place on March 27, 1914 as the Grapefruit League was established. The Browns hosted the Chicago Cubs, who were training in Tampa and made the trip by steamboat across Tampa Bay. The Cubs won, 3-2. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on.

The resourceful Lang helped engineer a new ballpark, Waterfront Park—located at the approximate site where the parking lot for Al Lang Field is today—and a new arrival, the Boston Braves, christened the new park in 1922. The Yankees joined the Braves in St. Pete in 1925. They would remain for all but four years until 1962, when Casey Stengel and the expansion New York Mets moved in and the Yankees went to Fort Lauderdale.

When the Boston Braves left for Bradenton in 1937, the St. Louis Cardinals came to St. Petersburg the following year and would stay 57 of the next 60 years, missing only the war years.

Minor league baseball in the city began in 1920 as the St. Pete Saints entered the Florida State League.

There was one other professional league in St. Petersburg prior to the Rays arrival in 1998. The Senior Professional Baseball Association—a league of former major leaguers who were 35 years of age or older—sprang up for one season, 1989-90. The St. Pete Pelicans were the first and only league champions.

Through eight seasons under the Wild Card Game format, the Rays joined the Yankees and Giants as the only teams to win it twice...the Rays advanced to the Division Series with a 5-1 win over the Athletics in front of 54,005 at the Oakland Coliseum, the highest attendance for a Wild Card Game under the new format...it was the highest attendance for a Rays game (regular season or postseason) since Sep 14, 2008 at NYY (54,279), which was in the final month of games at Old Yankee Stadium.

- The Rays held a lead from the fifth pitch of the Wild Card Game through the final pitch, after Yandy Díaz hit a leadoff homer...it was the first postseason leadoff homer in franchise history and second in Wild Card Game history, following MIN Brian Dozier in the 2017 AL Wild Card Game at NYY.

POWER SURGE

The Rays hit 4 HR in the Wild Card Game and 4 HR in Game 3 of the ALDS, twice tying their single-game postseason record…the Rays, who hit the fewest homers among the AL's five postseason clubs, totaled 11 HR in six postseason games…all 11 HR came over the club's 4 games when facing elimination, a major league record for homers in elimination games in a single postseason.

CHARLIE 2.0

In his first season with the Rays, Charlie Morton went 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA (10-IP, 1-ER) in two postseason starts…with his win in the Wild Card Game, he became the first pitcher in major league history to record the win in three "winner take all" playoff games…he defeated his former team in Game 3 of the ALDS, helping the Rays avoid elimination…it was his fourth career win in a potential elimination game, tying for the most in major league history… he joined DET/HOU Justin Verlander, ATL John Smoltz, PHI/ARI/BOS Curt Schilling, SEA/ARI Randy Johnson and CIN Clay Carroll.

CUBAN SMOKE

Yandy Díaz was reinstated from the 60-day IL for the last game of the regular season and hit leadoff in the Wild Card Game…he homered in the 1st and 3rd innings, becoming the fifth Ray with a multi-HR game in the postseason and the first of these five to do it in a "winner take all" game.

- Díaz was the 10th player in postseason history with a multi-HR effort in a "winner take all" game but only the second out of the leadoff spot, joining BOS Johnny Damon in Game 7 of the 2004 ALCS…he became the first leadoff hitter in major league history to homer in each of his first 2 AB of a postseason.

POSTSEASON THE HARD WAY

With a 5-2 win at Texas in a Game 163 tiebreaker on Sep 30, the Rays became the 14th team to enter the postseason via a tiebreaker and only the second in the Wild Card era (since 1995) to win a tiebreaker game on the road (also 1999 Mets)...road teams had been 1-5 previously...the Rays advanced to the ALDS by winning 3 games in which they would have been eliminated had they lost—all over a four-day span in three different cities...in Game 162 on Sep 29 at TOR, the Rays snapped a 2-game losing streak to avoid being passed by Texas in the standings...the Rays snapped the Rangers 7-game win streak on Sep 30 at TEX in Game 163 and the Indians 10-game win streak in the AL Wild Card game on Oct 2 at CLE...the Rays advanced to the postseason for the fourth time in their history, all coming in a six-season span from 2008-13.

ICE CREAM MAN

In the Rays 5-4 win in Game 3 of the ALDS, catcher José Lobaton became just the 13th player to hit a walk-off home run in a postseason elimination game…he was the first AL player to do it since BOS David Ortiz in Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS vs. NYY… Lobaton, known for eating ice cream after hitting a home run, also became just the third player to hit a walk-off home run to avoid being swept in a postseason series…he joined Ortiz in 2004 and BOS Trot Nixon in Game 3 of 2003 ALDS vs. OAK.

- Lobaton's homer was hit into the Rays Touch Tank, the third home run to land there and first by a Rays player…the only previous times were by DET Miguel Cabrera on June 30, 2013 and LAD Luis Gonzalez on June 24, 2007.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

In Game 3 of the ALDS, Evan Longoria homered on his 28th birthday, becoming the second player in major league history to hit a postseason homer on his birthday…he joined KC Willie Mays Aikens, who hit 2 HR in Game 1 of the 1980 World Series.

NINE FOR NINE

In the Rays 3-1 loss in Game 4 of the ALDS, Rays Manager Joe Maddon used nine pitchers, which remains tied for the major league postseason record for a 9-inning game…this has been matched once since, by Manager Kevin Cash in the Rays 6-1 loss in Game 5 of the 2019 ALDS at HOU.

2011 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

THIRD TIME IN FOUR YEARS

The Rays advanced to the postseason for the third time in a span of four seasons (2008-11), first time as the AL Wild Card...during that span only two other teams made as many postseason appearances: Phillies (4) and Yankees (3)...the Rays became the third major league team and first AL team to advance to the postseason after starting the season 0-6, and just the second major league team to advance to the postseason after starting 1-8...the 1995 Reds won the NL Central after starting 0-6 and 1-8, and the 1974 Pirates won the NL East after starting 0-6.

HISTORIC COMEBACK

The Rays became the first team in major league history to be at least 9 GB of a playoff berth in September and make the postseason...the Rays were 9 GB of playoff contention on Sep 3...the 2011 World Series champion Cardinals were 8.5 GB on Sep 5...the Rays were 16-8 and the Red Sox were 6-18 over the last 24 games of the regular season, starting Sep 4.

RAYS vs. RANGERS, PART II

For the second year in a row, the Rays lost to the Rangers in the ALDS...the Rays actually outscored the Rangers, 21-16, but lost the series, 3-1...in these two series, the visiting teams went 8-1...the Rays went 3-1 with 26 runs and 21 XBH at Texas, but 0-5 with 8 runs and 8 XBH at home.

MATT MOORE

At 22 years, 104 days, Matt Moore became the youngest starting pitcher ever to win his team's first game of the postseason...previously that mark was held by CIN Gary Nolan (22 years, 129 days) in the 1970 NLCS...Moore did not allow a run in 7 IP in the Rays 9-0 win over the Rangers in Game 1 of the ALDS at TEX...he allowed 2 hits, 2 BB and recorded 6 SO while throwing 98 pitches.

- Moore became the fifth rookie starter to win his team's first game of the postseason and the first to do it since NYY Jim Beattie in Game 1 of the 1978 ALCS over the Royals...he also became the first rookie in major league history to go at least 7 IP and allow no runs and 2 hits (or fewer) in a postseason game...he remains the 2nd-youngest pitcher to ever do that, behind NYY Waite Hoyt (22 years, 27 days) in Game 2 of the 1921 World Series vs. the New York Giants.

Matt Moore and Jeremy Hellickson started Game 1 and Game 4 of the ALDS…the Rays were the 10th team, first since the 2007 Rockies, to use two rookie starters in the postseason…the Rays had seven rookies on their 25-man postseason roster.

JAMES SHIELDS

Started and lost Game 2 of the ALDS at Texas, 8-6… took a 3-0 lead into the 4th inning but allowed 5 runs that frame, which included 2 HBP and 2 WP…he remains the only pitcher in major league history with 2 HBP and 2 WP in a postseason game…it was the first time in his career (in 190 regular and postseason starts) with 2 HBP in an inning and only the second time he threw 2 WP in an inning (also July 6, 2007 at KC)…his line: 5 IP, 8 H, 7 R/ER, 0 BB, 6 SO.

2010 POSTSEASON

The Rays won the AL East for the second time in three years...after the current divisional format was adopted in 1994, the Rays became the first team other than the Yankees to win two AL East championships in a full 162-game season... with 96 wins, the Rays led the AL in wins for the first time and finished 2nd in the majors to the Phillies (97)...in addition, the Rays became:

- The first team in major league history to endure 10 straight losing seasons, then make the postseason two of the next three seasons.
- The first team to average 90-plus wins over three consecutive seasons after 10 straight losing seasons.
- The fourth team to average 90-plus wins over three seasons after averaging 90-plus losses the three previous seasons, joining the 1996–2001 Athletics, 1975-80 Brewers and 1988-93 Atlanta Braves.

RANGERS DEFEAT RAYS IN ALDS

For the first time in major league history, the road team won every game of a postseason series...the Rays became the first team in major league history to lose three home games in any 5-game postseason series...it was the first ALDS to reach 5 games in five years—since the Angels won at home over the Yankees in 2005.

- The Rays became the third team to force a Game 5 in a best-of-five series after losing the first two games of the series at home...the 1981 Brewers (vs. New York) and 2001 Yankees (vs. Oakland) did it before them...a division series was necessary in 1981 due to the split season.
- The Rays became the 11th team to force a Game 5 in a 5-game series after losing the first two games (home or road)...the Rays were the first team since the 1981 Brewers to force a Game 5 after an 0-2 start and lose Game 5.

DAVID PRICE AND CLIFF LEE

Price had 14 SO and 0 BB in the series, and Lee had 21 SO and 0 BB...no pitchers in baseball history have totaled more strikeouts without allowing a walk in a postseason series than Lee and Price...ATL Kevin Millwood (2002 NLDS) and CLE Andrew Miller (2016 ALCS) have tied Price's mark.

2008 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

2008 POSTSEASON

Only one team in major league history lost more games than the Rays (96) the year before going to the World Series: the 1991 Braves, who were 65-97...the Rays were the second team in major league history and the fifth team in the four major sports to advance to its league's championship series the year after having the worst record in the league...the others to do that: 1991 Braves, 1958-59 Minneapolis Lakers, 1958-59 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1949-50 New York Rangers.

RAYS SET A.L. POSTSEASON HOMER MARK

The Rays hit 26 HR in 16 games in the postseason, an AL record at the time... the previous record was 24, by the Angels in 2002...that mark remains one shy of the major league record, shared by the 2017 Astros and 2002 Giants...the Rays had 10 different players homer.

- The Rays hit 16 HR in the ALCS, most in LCS history, ahead of the Astros (14) in 2004...they belted 13 HR from Games 2-5, most home runs over a 4-game stretch in postseason history.

 ALCS, WS ROSTER ONLY*

the ALCS came in consecutive games (Games 2-5), which remains tied for a LCS record…he turned 23 on Oct 7, the youngest player in major league history to hit 6 HR (or more) in a single postseason.

RAYS SET POSTSEASON STEAL MARK

The Rays recorded 24 SB in the postseason, which remains a major league record ahead of the 1992 Braves (20) and 1975 Reds (20)…the Rays were caught just three times in the 16 games.

ALCS MVP MATT GARZA

Matt Garza went 2-0 with a 1.38 ERA (13-IP, 8-H, 2-ER, 6-BB, 14-SO) in the ALCS…he won Game 3 and Game 7 for the Rays…it was the 11th time that a pitcher won ALCS MVP honors (10th different pitcher)…at 24, Garza became the youngest pitcher ever to win ALCS MVP honors, surpassing Mike Boddicker (26) of the 1983 Orioles.

DAVID PRICE

The 23-year-old top overall pick of the 2007 June Draft became the quickest No. 1 overall selection to play in the World Series…earned his first win at the major league level in Game 2 of the ALCS and recorded the final four outs in Game 7 for his first career save…became the third rookie pitcher to record a win and a save in the same postseason series, joining STL Adam Wainwright (2006 World Series) and CIN Rawly Eastwick (1975 NLCS, 1975 World Series)…two other rookie pitchers have joined this list since then, most recently SF Hunter Strickland in the 2014 NLDS.

RAYS OPPONENTS

The 2020 season will mark the first time the Rays play a National League opponent on Opening Day, as they host the Pirates for three games from March 26-29. It will be the first time the Rays have faced Chris Archer since trading their four-time Opening Day starter and two-time All-Star to Pittsburgh on July 31, 2018. Other interleague highlights include a three-game set at Wrigley Field (July 3-5), and two home games (May 30-31) and two road games (July 7-8) against the Brewers.

MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

The Rays enter the 2020 season ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 farm system in the game, the fifth straight year they have improved their position. For each of the past two seasons, they have boasted the most prospects of any club on the publication's Top 100 list (nine in 2019, eight in 2020). Included in the Top 100 is a trio of middle infield prospects: Wander Franco, the consensus No. 1 prospect in the game; Vidal Bruján (No. 51) and newly-acquired Xavier Edwards (No. 85).

ERIK WALKER COMMUNITY CHAMPION AWARD

The Erik Walker Community Champion Award annually recognizes one Rays minor league player who exemplifies teamwork, sportsmanship and community involvement, attributes exhibited by Rays minor league pitcher Erik Walker, who died tragically in an October 2006 canoeing accident. Walker was drafted by the Rays in June 2006 and had just completed his first professional season with the Hudson Valley Renegades when his life was cut short on Oct 26, just 11 days after his 23rd birthday. Each of the Rays six domestic minor league affiliates nominates a candidate for the award.

REMEMBERING A TRAILBLAZER

Andrés Reiner passed away on Aug 3, 2016, at age 80. Hired by the organization in 2006, Andrés was instrumental in reorganizing how the Rays approached recruiting and signing players in Latin America. He played a major role in the building of the Rays academies in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Andrés transformed how baseball was scouted in Venezuela when he opened the country's first baseball academy for the Astros in 1989. Though many are aware of the 25 young men from that program who reached the big leagues, including Johan Santana, Bobby Abreu and Carlos Guillén, fewer know about the managers and coaches in minor league baseball who were influenced by Andrés. The Rays have several staff members who were signed by Andrés as players, including field coordinator Alejandro Freire, pitching coordinator Jorge Moncada, Hudson Valley coach Germán Meléndez and GCL Rays Manager Reinaldo Ruiz.

Andrés pioneered the cultural transition programs in professional baseball. These are programs the Rays have established for young men signed in Latin America. The Rays stand with many others in tribute to a man who dedicated his life to growing our game and mentoring others to do the same.

2019 Went 7-6 with a 3.16 ERA (102.2-IP, 36-ER) in 20 apps (17 starts) between Class-A Charlotte and Double-A Montgomery, earning a May 7 promotion…ranked by Baseball America as the No. 20 prospect in the Rays system following the season. 2018 Named to Midwest League midseason All-Star Team. PERSONAL Selected out of the College of Idaho, where he played one season after transferring from Everett (Wash.) Community College…attended Shoreline (Wash.) High School, the same school the Rays selected Blake Snell out of in the 2011 June Draft…his grandfather, Johnny O'Brien, played baseball and basketball at Seattle University despite his 5'9" stature…he became the first college player to score 1,000 points in a season, and gained more fame by leading Seattle to a victory over the Harlem Globetrotters…he was drafted by the NBA's Milwaukee Hawks but chose baseball and enjoyed a six-year career with the Pirates, Cardinals and Milwaukee Braves, not only as a middle infielder but also as a pitcher.

RAYS PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

MENTAL PERFORMANCE TRAINING PROGRAM

The Rays developed the Mental Performance Training Program to operate in conjunction with all other aspects of the Rays Player Development Program. While the primary focus of the program is with the players, it also serves all members of the organization, including administrative staff, coaches, managers and coordinators. Built upon the belief that what an athlete is thinking will influence his performance, the program's goal is to develop a consistent, ideal mindset for performance. The basic mental skills of concentration, imagery, self-talk and self-mastery serve as the foundation of the program with complementary emphasis on other influences, such as cultural diversity, transitions from one level to the next, dealing with failure and adversity. When a player's performance level becomes inconsistent, his mental performance training provides him with a tool, something to "go to" in order to "fix it, forget it and move forward."

James Schwabach enters his fourth season as a mental skills coach, covering Charlotte, Bowling Green and the GCL Rays. He joined the Rays from Apex Performance Inc. in Charlotte, N.C. James received his bachelor's degree from Union College and master's from Ithaca College.

The Rays hired several mental skills coaches in advance of the 2020 season. Josh Kozuch joins the organization to cover Durham and Montgomery, and Jenny Garcia, Kris Goodman and Carla Hodel begin new roles in June. Goodman will cover Hudson Valley and Princeton, while Garcia and Hodel will be assigned to the GCL Rays, DSL Rays, special projects and rehab.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

A key component of developing successful baseball players is providing each individual with a web of support and education as he transitions into adulthood. The Rays believe that developing quality persons who are also professional athletes goes a long way in producing quality major league players. The Rays offer their players and staff the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), which is designed to provide support, education, consultation and information throughout all areas of the Rays baseball operations department, both in the United States and abroad in Latin America.

Spearheading the EAP's efforts is Vince Lodato, who has been integral to the program's continued success since he began working with the Rays in 2001. Lodato has led the EAP with a proactive approach. Education and skills development are viewed as equally critical to a player's growth, with an understanding in place that each player's needs are different at different points in their journeys. The program reaches all levels of the organization, from in-season rookie orientation, instructional leagues and extended spring training to major league and minor league spring training.

During education sessions, players are instructed on topics such as the Rays Player Code of Conduct, drug abuse, performance enhancing substances and stimulants. In addition, Lodato covers the subjects of leadership, teamwork and developing one's career both on and off the field.

EXPANDING INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

Rays infielder Wander Franco playing vitilla, a variation of stickball popular in the Dominican Republic, on a dirt field in his hometown of Baní in October 2018.

GEORGE PAPPAS / TAMPA BAY RAYS

BASEBALL HAS TRULY BECOME A GLOBAL GAME. TODAY, MORE THAN ONE-FOURTH OF ALL MAJOR LEAGUERS WERE BORN OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES.

As a result, the Rays have expanded the reach of their international operations. With the signing of Japanese third baseman/outfielder Yoshi Tsutsugo in December 2019, the Rays now have players from 16 countries—Aruba, Australia, Bahamas, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Curaçao, Dominican Republic, Germany, Japan, South Korea, St. Martin, Mexico, Nicaragua and Venezuela—in addition to those from the United States.

While the organization spans the globe in search for talent, the main focus is in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela, where Tampa Bay operates baseball academies.

In 2006, shortly after the ownership group led by Stuart Sternberg took control of the club, the Rays agreed to a partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers in which the two organizations would share Campo Las Palmas in the Dominican Republic, long considered the gold standard for Dominican facilities. Campo Las Palmas was home to the Rays baseball academy and a summer league team until early 2009 when the organization inaugurated a new academy located on the property adjacent to the Dodgers. The complex has two full diamonds and a half field, clubhouse, gym, covered batting cages, classrooms, a dining area and living facilities which can accommodate up to 92 players. In 2018, the program claimed its first Dominican Summer League (DSL) title.

In 2007, the Rays opened their Venezuelan baseball academy in Guacara, 100 miles west of Caracas. In addition to baseball fields, the Venezuelan academy includes a dining area and dormitory which can accommodate 56 players. The Rays played in the Venezuelan Summer League (VSL) in 2007 as part of a co-op team with the Cincinnati Reds before forming a team of their own in 2008. The program won VSL championships in 2009 and 2011. The VSL closed its operations after the 2015 season, prompting the Rays to add a second team in the DSL in 2016.

In 2019, Carlos Rodriguez was promoted to vice president, player development and international operations, overseeing both areas. Steve Miller was promoted to director, international scouting, running the department and overseeing all scouts. Patrick Walters was promoted to director, international operations, and will oversee all operations at the Rays Latin American academies. Brad Budzinski was added to the staff in 2018 as an international crosschecker. Ronnie Blanco, former general manager of the Magallanes baseball club in the Venezuelan professional league, is assistant director, international operations.

GEORGE PAPPAS / TAMPA BAY RAYS

LEFT: Shortstop Willy Adames (middle) and former outfielder Carlos Gómez welcome 2019 June Draft selections Shane Sasaki, JJ Goss, Seth Johnson, Greg Jones, John Doxakis and Princeton Manager Sean Smedley to their hometown of Santiago de los Caballeros during their November 2019 study abroad visit to the Dominican Republic.

The Rays maintain scouting programs in Brazil headed by Tiago Campos; Colombia, coordinated by Angel Contreras; Curaçao, led by Chairon Isenia; Panama, with Gustavo Zapata; and Mexico, with Jesus Valdez and Karla Espinoza, Mexico's first female scout.

The Rays have also expanded scouting efforts in the Pacific Rim, Europe and Australia. Tateki "Bori" Uchibori, who served as an interpreter for former Tampa Bay infielder Akinori Iwamura, scouts for the Rays in Japan and Korea. In 2016, Joe Park was added to the Korean scouting staff. Keith Hsu covers Taiwan and John Gilmore enters his 12th year as an international consultant assisting in coverage all over the world.

With rising numbers of international players, the Rays have also developed programs in the U.S. and in their Latin American academies to educate players and create cultural awareness. Today, these programs cater to international and domestic players alike and have grown to include language training, life skills, professional development and education on social issues. These programs are overseen by George Pappas, manager, minor league and international operations, and are supported by Jairo De La Rosa, a former player in the Rays organization who has served as Latin American cultural coordinator since 2013; Lenore Sutton, who has taught Rays players since 2009 and joined the organization full-time as Florida education coordinator in 2015; and Milton Jamail, who begins his 14th year in the organization and first as advisor, player education and acculturation.

In 2019, the Rays continued a program to introduce American-born minor league players to the organization's Latin American operations. Infielder Gionti Turner and five selected in the 2019 June Draft—Greg Jones, JJ Goss, Seth Johnson, John Doxakis and Shane Sasaki—spent four days at the Rays Dominican academy with Princeton Manager Sean Smedley and toured the country that produces so much major league talent.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

Rays fans have enjoyed remarkable stability in the TV and radio booths. Dewayne Staats and Brian Anderson enter their 12th season together in the TV booth, and Staats has handled play-by-play since the inaugural 1998 season. On the radio side, Dave Wills and Andy Freed begin their 16th season together; only the Giants and Tigers have longer-tenured full-season radio broadcast duos. Spanish radio broadcasters Enrique Oliu and Ricardo Taveras embark on their 18th season together.

RAYS ON TELEVISION

DEWAYNE STAATS

Dewayne anchors the Emmy Award-winning FOX Sports Sun telecast this year, his 45th season broadcasting major league baseball and 23rd with the Rays. Dewayne has also handled play-by-play for FOX Sports national baseball coverage. He has broadcast more than 6,000 MLB games in his career, including nine no-hitters. Before joining the Rays, he spent three years calling play-by-play for a variety of ESPN sports broadcasts. He began his major league play-by-play career as the radio and TV voice of the Astros from 1977-84, then for the Cubs from 1985-89. He was the lead play-by-play announcer for the Yankees from 1990-94, and spent the 1994-95 seasons calling the action for The Baseball Network (ABC/NBC). Dewayne began his baseball career as the radio voice of the Oklahoma City 89ers (1973-74). In 1975-76 he was sports director at KPLR TV in St. Louis and received an Emmy nomination. A 1975 graduate of SIU-Edwardsville, where he began his sports career with WSIE Radio, Dewayne earned Distinguished Alumnus of the Year honors in 1987 and was inducted into its Alumni Hall of Fame in 2010. Dewayne was named a finalist for the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, in 2012, 2013, 2016 and 2019. He was named the 2013 Florida Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In 2015, Dewayne authored Position to Win: A Look at Baseball and Life From the Best Seat in the House, which chronicles his life and career in sports broadcasting. Dewayne was inducted into the Tampa Bay Sports Club Hall of Fame in 2018. He and his wife, Carla, support a number of causes, including military combat veterans via their 501(c)(3) charity W.A.R. (Warriors at Rest). He has two daughters, Stephanie Wheeler and Alexandra, and three grandchildren: Gabriel, 15; Zachary, 12; and Evie, 9.

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian enters his 10th season as full-time television color analyst on FOX Sports Sun and his 12th season as part of the Rays broadcast. Brian previously served on the major league staff as assistant to the pitching coach, working under Jim Hickey from March 2008 through the 2009 season. He also filled in as broadcaster for the Indians on Sports Time Ohio and hosted a weekly highlights show while recovering from injury in 2007. Brian spent 13 seasons pitching in the majors with the Angels, Indians and Royals, and was a member of the 2001 World Champion Diamondbacks. He was selected third overall by the Angels in the 1993 June Draft and the following season was named the Sporting News AL Rookie of the Year. He was also selected by the Diamondbacks as their first pick in the 1997 Expansion Draft. Brian was inducted to the Greater Cleveland Sports Hall of Fame on Sep 30, 2015 and made his acceptance speech by phone during the Rays broadcast. He and his wife, Jessica Marie, reside in St. Petersburg. Brian has three children: Rylyn Mae, 15; Jackson James, 13; and Harper Marie, 4.

TRICIA WHITAKER

Tricia begins her second season on the FOX Sports Sun telecast as the in-game reporter and host of select feature episodes. Prior to joining the Rays broadcast, the Stuart, Fla. native spent four years covering local sports with the CBS affiliate in Indianapolis, including the Indiana Pacers, IndyCar racing, college basketball and the Indianapolis Colts. Her career experience also includes a two-year stint covering professional and collegiate teams, including the Brewers, for the ABC affiliate in Green Bay. Her professional career began as a web reporter with the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever. Tricia graduated from Indiana University with a degree in communications. She has returned to teach courses at IU's media school as an adjunct professor for the past three years.

RICH HOLLENBERG

Rich enters his seventh season covering the Rays on television with the FOX Sports Sun broadcast team. He began his broadcast career as a sports anchor with the ABC affiliate in Great Falls, Mont. in 1995, then served as the sports director with Time Warner Cable (now Spectrum Sports) in Clearwater from 1995-97, where he received a CableACE award for the best local sports program. Rich has also served as host of "H.S. Sports Extra" for WTVT FOX-13 from 1996-98, the in-arena voice for the Tampa Bay Lightning and Tampa Bay Storm from 1999–2002 and a host for a variety of other regional sports and lifestyle programs. TROPICANA FIELD & MISC.

Since 2008, Tropicana Field has hosted 17 postseason baseball games over five visits to the playoffs. The Rays won both games they hosted in the 2019 ALDS against the Astros, forcing a Game 5 in Houston after trailing 2-0 in the series. Over the past three years, Rays ownership has invested more than $20 million in capital improvements to the facility. This includes new LED lights, a more intimate seating capacity, the Left Field Ledge and an overhauled food, beverage and retail space.

- Tropicana Field will transition to exclusive use of mobile tickets in advance of the 2020 season. Mobile ticketing improves ballpark security and limits the risk of fraudulent entry, as well as decreases the facility's paper waste.
- The Rays this offseason extended the knotless safety nets to the ends of Sections 125 and 126. The change comes two years after the nets were extended from the inside of the dugouts to the far ends of the dugouts.
- Tropicana Field was announced in January 2019 as the first cash-free sports venue in North America, resulting in reduced transaction times and shortened lines around the ballpark.
- Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities found nowhere else in the major leagues.
- The venue opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct 4, 1996, in accordance with a naming rights agreement between the Rays and Bradenton's Tropicana Dole Beverages.
- Since 2005, the Rays have invested an estimated $50 million into capital improvements at Tropicana Field.
- Prior to the 2019 season, the tarped seats in left field were replaced by the Louisiana Hot Sauce Left Field Ledge, an all-inclusive group area featuring a full-service bar, ledge tables and seated drink rails. Seating at Tropicana Field was reconfigured to concentrate fans closer to the field by eliminating the upper deck level. In addition, the existing field lights were replaced with energy-efficient LED lights, enhancing on-field playability and in-game entertainment.
- In 2018, the Rays partnered with Levy to overhaul the food, beverage and retail experience, including "food halls" and a renovated team store.
- Between 2013-14, the Rays added 360-degree pedestrian circulation around the lower seating bowl. The improved circulation provides easier access to and from ballpark gates, concessions and activity areas throughout the facility.
- Over 2006-07, the Rays invested more than $18 million toward improvements to Tropicana Field, including the creation of the Rays Club and the installation of new video boards and a sound system.
- Tropicana Field is also the world's only professional sports facility that features live rays. The Rays Touch Tank opened in 2006, and is located just behind the right-center field wall. Through a unique partnership with the Florida Aquarium, there are over 20 cownose rays that fans can touch throughout the game. The 10,000-gallon tank is sponsored by the Pinellas County Visitors Bureau and FloridaBeaches.com, and is one of the 10 largest in the United States.

- Tropicana Field and Toronto's Rogers Centre both feature an artificial surface and all-dirt base paths. Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966-71), San Francisco's Candlestick Park (1971), Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium (1970-72) and St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76).
- The Rays installed new Shaw Sports Turf for the 2019 season, the seventh surface in 22 seasons. They began play in 1998 on AstroTurf, went to a FieldTurf surface in 2000 and FieldTurf's improved product in 2007. In 2011, AstroTurf installed Game Day Grass 3D-60 H. The first of three Shaw Sports Turf surfaces was installed for the 2017 season.
- Tropicana Field features the world's largest cable-supported domed roof following the demolition of the Georgia Dome in 2017. It's made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. Tropicana Field's roof is slanted at a 6.5-degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced the overall construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet, decreasing the amount of air requiring climate control. It is built to withstand winds of up to 115 miles per hour.
- Though originally built for baseball, there have been 14 other sports and events held there. These include hockey, basketball, football, sprint car racing, gymnastics, soccer, tennis, weight lifting, table tennis, karate, motorcycle racing, equestrian events, track and figure skating.
- In addition to the 2008 World Series, the facility was also home to the 1999 NCAA Basketball Final Four featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut. The largest crowd to date—47,150—appeared at the Aug 11, 1990 concert featuring New Kids on the Block. It is currently home to college football's East-West Shrine Game.

SKIP MILOS / TAMPA BAY RAYS

On Sep 20, 2006, the Rays and the Charlotte County Board of Commissioners signed a 20-year agreement for the team to conduct spring training at Charlotte Sports Park, the spring training home of the Texas Rangers from 1987–2002. Following an 18-month renovation, the park became the Rays official spring home on Feb 25, 2009, when Tampa Bay hosted the Cincinnati Reds. The Rays went on to set the club spring training attendance record and sold out eight home games in their first season in Charlotte County. In 2014, readers of USA Today voted Charlotte Sports Park their favorite spring training destination.

IMPROVEMENTS
Prior to the 2020 spring season, the Rays funded $2.5 million in facility improvements, resulting in 27,000 square feet of new or renovated spaces primarily aimed at increasing and modernizing the amount of indoor player training space on site. Changes included a state-of-the-art training facility and climate-controlled batting cages.

The $27.2 million renovation and expansion project was funded by the Charlotte County Board of Commissioners' unanimous approval (4-0) of a fifth-cent tourism tax, a contribution from the Rays and a $15 million grant from the Florida Sports Foundation and the State's Office of Tourism.

SEATING CAPACITY
The ballpark features a diversity of seating areas, including over 5,000 fixed seats and two berm areas and other general admission areas that can accommodate over 1,000 additional fans, all within an intimate ballpark setting. The stadium capacity is 6,823.

PLAYER FACILITIES
A 44,000-square-foot, two-story clubhouse building beyond right field features locker rooms for Rays major and minor league players and houses the Rays Player Development center. The nearby Athletic Performance Center opened ahead of the 2020 spring season and features 10,500 square feet of continuous training space.

TEAM STORE
